Argentines Help Rescue Couple's Son

Buenos Aires, Nov. 16 (AP)—A Romanian legion chauffeur and his wife made a dramatic dash to freedom today and, with the help of Argentine demonstrators, rescued their baby boy from Communist custody.

The wife failed in her first attempt to rescue the younger of the couple's two sons.

She then escaped the Romanian legion through a bathroom window and returned with reinforcements.

Legation officials finally yielded to the shouting of Argentines for the baby's release.

Tonight the Argentine government was considering the parents' plea for political asylum for the family of four so they would not have to return behind the Iron Curtain.

Here is the story of the escape: George Coman, 31, his wife and two boys were being returned to Bucharest after Coman had completed his tour of duty as chauffeur to the legion here.

The four were entering a legation car to be driven to the airport when the parents bolted, taking their 4-year-old son. In a mixup, the 11-month-old younger son was left behind.

Coman and the older boy went straight to police to ask for asylum while Mrs. Coman went back to the legation for the baby.

She said she was dragged inside the legation and that the Romanian minister to Argentina, Anton Moiseu, struck her.

Two Brothers Compromise On Mode Of Travel

FORT SCOTT, Kans., Nov. 16 (AP)—Howard Stout, Fort Scott, doesn't like flying. His brother, Stuart Scott, Springfield, Mo., doesn't care much for trains.

So, when they made a business trip to Michigan earlier this month, they told friends today, they compromised—going by commercial airliner, returning by train.

It was the first time Howard Stout had flown since he went up, as a boy, in a barnstorming World War I open cockpit plane. It was the first time Stuart Stout had ridden a train since his honeymoon 25 years ago.

India Receives Food Shipment

BOMBAY, Nov. 16 (AP)—India today received the first shipment of wheat under a $50 million dollar American food loan. It will help tide over an expected food deficit during India's second five year plan.

Presiding over the delivery ceremony on the Bombay dock was Y. B. Chavan, Bombay state chief minister.

M. V. Krishna, union deputy minister, received from Frederick P. Bartlett, U.S. charge d'affaires a small cloth bag containing some wheat from the freighter Niko. It arrived here early this week from Portland, Ore., with the first consignment of wheat under the loan agreement.

UN Shelves Red China's Entry Again

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Nov. 16 (AP)—A feud developed today between Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) and Indian diplomat V. K. Krishna Menon as the U. N. General Assembly shelved for another year the issue of whether to seat Communist China.

Menon, head of the Indian delegation, blasted Knowland, a member of the U. S. delegation, for a statement the senator made last night accusing him of fronting for Russia on the issue. Menon said it was "a disservice to the cause of international friendship." He called on the chief U. S. delegate, Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., to disown the statement, but Lodge declined to comment.

Knowland, who had given out the pronouncement on behalf of himself alone, told reporters, "The results speak for themselves. My statement stands."

The 79-nation Assembly had just adopted a U. S. resolution whereby it decided not to consider at its current 11th session any proposals to exclude Nationalist China or seat Red China. It turned down India's request that the question of Chinese representation be put on the session's agenda.

The vote for the U. S. postponement resolution was 47-24, a ratio of 2-1, with 8 abstentions.

Abstaining today were Cambodia, Israel, Jordan, Laos, Libya, Portugal, Saudi Arabia and Tunisia. Six of these are new members.

Kadar Says "Suicide" To Continue

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Nov. 16 (AP)—A labor spokesman said today the Budapest Council of Workers has agreed to urge all workers in the capital to return to their jobs tomorrow. If they obey, the paralyzing general strike which followed the shooting revolt will be over.

The agreement followed an all night session with Janos Kadar, the man chosen by the Russians to be Hungarian premier. The spokesman said Kadar persuaded the council that continuation of the strike would be "national suicide."

The spokesman did not disclose how the embattled premier got the council to abandon its demands for reinstatement of Imre Nagy as premier and withdrawal of Soviet troops.

Three-Stage Program

Earlier reports from reliable sources said Kadar and council members had agreed on a three-stage program of partial withdrawal of Soviet troops and the beginning of talks to form a coalition government.

The reported troop movement would include these phases: 1. Withdrawal of the Russian forces to barracks in Budapest; 2. Return to their original bases, either in the Hungarian countryside or in Russia; 3. Start of negotiations with Moscow for a review of the Warsaw Pact and withdrawal of all troops.

National groups of intellectuals, revolutionary students and strikers had been urging continuation of the general strike until all demands were fulfilled, including free elections and the return of Nagy, who became premier briefly when the rebellion flared three weeks ago, took refuge in the Yugoslav Embassy here after Russian troops and tanks opened fire Nov. 4.

The council spokesman did not make it clear whether the workers' demands had been withdrawn. He said the council will meet again tomorrow and that at that time foreign newsmen will be told the truth—"and only the truth."

Bolsters Regime

Kadar sought to bolster his regime, thoroughly shaken by the strike in the wake of the violent revolt, through overtures for support from leaders of the long inactive, non-Communist, peasant and small landholders parties.

The food situation improved markedly in Budapest today, although there still were long lines in front of food shops. The danger of famine appeared to have ended.

Troops Sandbag Port Said Areas

PORT SAID, Egypt, Nov. 16 (AP)—British troops began throwing up sandbagged strongpoints at strategic street intersections around Port Said today. Lt. Gen. Sir Hugh Stockwell, the commander, said this was a precaution "in case of an internal security situation."

He said he considered that anti-British and anti-French feeling in the city was no more than should be expected in a city that had been a battlefield, "but we want to stop the thing rooting."

Waiting patiently, most of the troops talk about when they will be able to go home.

"Out of the trenches by Christmas" is one joking comment.

"If we can't go forward we might as well go home," said one sergeant.

But on higher levels there is no rush to get going. Gen. Stockwell said his mission now is to hold on to the slender stretch of territory he now occupies until provisions are made for turning it over to the U. N. force, and to keep prepared for a possible breakout battle. He said he had no idea when the turnover would be.

Production Down

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—The National Coal Assn. today estimated bituminous production for the week ended Nov. 10 at 10,165,000 tons, compared to 10,585,000 in the previous week.

For the corresponding week in 1955 production totaled 9,874,000 tons.

Soviet Told Remain Out Of Mideast

U. S. Will Back UN Opposition To "Volunteers"

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Nov. 16 (AP)—Acting Secretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr. warned the Soviet Union today to keep its "volunteers" out of the Middle East or face U. N. opposition backed by U. S. power.

In a review of the world situation before the 79-nation U. N. Assembly, the U. S. delegation chief, stated that everyone to cooperate with the U. N. in restoring peace in the Middle East. Also, he denounced the "barbarism" of Soviet deportations of Hungarian rebels and pledged the cooperation of the United States in working for permanent world peace.

Spoke For Dulles

Hoover spoke in place of the ailing John Foster Dulles. He made the shortest statement of general policy yet made by any U. S. delegation head in such a U. N. general debate, 23 minutes in all.

But he made it clear that the United States is giving its full backing to the United Nations at this time of trial and has full confidence in Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold.

"In the Middle East," Hoover said, "we welcome the statements of cooperation which have been made in response to the call of the United Nations to cease military operations, to withdraw armed forces, and to implement the United Nations force."

As Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri T. Shepilov busily took notes, Hoover added:

"There have, however, been suggestions of introducing so-called 'volunteers' into the Near East. Such action would be clearly contrary to the resolution passed on Nov. 2, which was supported by 64 members of this Assembly. It is the clear duty of all, including those who engaged in hostilities, to refrain from introducing forces into the area of recent hostilities, other than those of the United Nations emergency force."

Would Hamper Efforts

"Certainly, no state should compound the difficulties of the United Nations in restoring the peace. Introduction of external forces into the area of hostilities would clearly hamper the efforts that are now being made, and in fact would be a threat to the United Nations forces now entering the area."

"The United Nations would be obligated to take appropriate action. President Eisenhower has announced that the United States would fully support such action."

He urged the Assembly to approve two U. S. resolutions looking to long-range settlements of the Suez Canal problem and the Palestine deadlock. These provide for establishment of committees to work on each and Hoover said each committee should get to work quickly.

Vatican Radio Critical Of West Action On Hungary

VATICAN CITY, Nov. 16 (AP)—The Vatican radio sharply criticized the West today, declaring that it had failed to halt bloodshed in Hungary.

"You can send an international police force to the Suez," said a radio commentator, "but you can't send one to Hungary because the Soviets oppose it."

"The Western world, lavish with protests, did not succeed in stopping the slaughter of men and freedom perpetrated by Soviet divisions."

The commentator said that everyone is convinced that the West's "extreme prudence and delicacy" in dealing with the "Soviet assassins" was the only means of preserving world peace.

Gas Well Erupts Into Fiery Wall

CUBA, N.M. Nov. 16 (AP)—A gas well erupted into flame last night and was still blasting 10 million cubic feet of blazing natural gas into the air today.

Richard S. Beene, 43, Andrews, Tex., who was working under the platform when the well blew, was thrown from the blazing well, but escaped with only a broken leg. Bill Baldwin, Magnolia Petroleum Co., scout in Albuquerque, said the well was the Chaney No. 1, a wildcat with a "very high" production, tested around 10 million cubic feet a day. It's in the Landrith area about 35 miles north of Cuba.

Dock Strike Ties Up Major Ports

60,000 Workmen Idle In Nation's Biggest Walkout

NEW YORK, Nov. 16 (AP)—The most widespread dock workers strike in the nation's history today tied up general shipping in all major ports from Maine to Texas.

Some 60,000 members of the International Longshoremen's Assn. independent, walked out in a contract dispute with the New York Shipping Assn., representing 170 shipping and stevedore firms.

Negotiations resumed late today at federal mediation offices here. The strike has idled 150 or more ships.

Vessels carrying cargoes such as oil or coal, handled by pipelines or chutes rather than longshoremen, appeared to be operating normally.

But it was an entirely different picture for general cargo ships and passenger ships that also carry cargo.

Docked In New York

The Italian liner Saturnia and the Panama liner Panama docked in New York, but there were no longshoremen on hand to remove passengers' baggage or the cargoes. Personnel of the lines helped the passengers get their luggage ashore.

Two Grace Line ships due to sail last night with cruise passengers for sunny climates still were portbound. They were the Santa Rosa and Santa Clara.

Some of their crewmen, members of the National Maritime Union, reported "sick" just before their sailings and declined to cast off the lines.

Government circles in Washington expressed fear the strike would aggravate a world shipping crisis caused by the Suez Canal closing.

Won't Involve T-H Law

They said, however, it was unlikely steps to invoke the Taft-Hartley law to obtain a court injunction against the strike would be considered unless the tie-up continues into next week.

The New York Board of Trade meanwhile appealed to President Eisenhower to declare a national emergency and to invoke the Taft-Hartley law.

"This is by far one of the biggest threats which we have faced to the economic well-being of the people of our country in several years," said Bernard P. Day, board chairman.

Shipping sources said this was the first time cargoes had been immobilized on both the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts simultaneously, from the borders of Canada to Mexico.

They noted the West Coast had had strikes but said the volume of cargo involved did not approach that of the combined Atlantic and Gulf Coasts.

Also, they expressed fear that the West Coast dockers might join in the present strike.

The Commerce and Industry Assn., another New York organization, estimated the strike, if protracted, would cost the port of New York alone one million dollars a day.

Youth Loses Hair Decision

MT. CLEMENS, Mich., Nov. 16 (AP)—Robert Phernetton today lost his court battle over the right to attend the nearby Romeo community high school with his hair styled in the manner of singer Elvis Presley.

In a courtroom crowded with teen-agers, Circuit Judge Alton H. Noe denied a writ of mandamus which would have required school officials to readmit Robert to his classes, long hair or not.

"I am not going to get my hair cut," said Robert.

Mrs. Alice Phernetton, who had brought the case to court, stood by her son. "We're going to try to get Robert into another school," she declared. "We don't want to live under a dictatorship."

Judge Noe's decision climaxed a six-week dispute touched off when Harold Barr, Romeo High School principal, served notice that the fancy hairdos and long sideburns favored by rock 'n' roller Elvis Presley would not be tolerated among male pupils.

Egypt Wants Police Action "Limited"

Editorial States County Will Dictate Its Own Terms

CAIRO, Egypt, Nov. 16 (AP)—Dag Hammarskjold talked with President Nasser tonight with every sign that Egypt has taken a stand against all but the most limited functions of the U. N. police force on her soil.

The U. N. secretary general arrived here a few hours after an authoritative press editorial declared that Egypt—and no one else—would "dictate her terms."

These terms, the Egyptians have indicated, include quick withdrawal of the British-French from the Suez Canal zone and the Israelis from all their conquests—with the U. N. police force seeing to that alone and with the Egyptians then taking over.

Condition Withdrawal

The British, French and Israelis have conditioned their withdrawal on their own arrangements to be made with the U. N. force slowly building up in the canal zone.

The stern Egyptian editorial, in Al Gumhuriya, a government-backed newspaper, was by Col. Anwar el Sadat, a former minister of state and member of Nasser's Revolutionary Council.

Al Gumhuriya gave the first Egyptian comment in Cairo on Wednesday's report from Moscow that Egypt had requested immediate dispatch of Soviet "volunteers" to Egypt. The Egyptian Embassy in Moscow qualified this later by saying such a request would be made only if the British, French and Israelis failed to withdraw promptly.

"Why all this panic in the imperialistic countries following the report about Russian volunteers?" Al Gumhuriya asked. "The warning of the Soviet Union has been quite clear and unequivocal. It declares that in case of procrastination by Britain and France or Israel in withdrawal from Egyptian territory Russia would grant permission to Russian volunteers to join the Egyptian liberation army."

Made Similar Offers

The editorial noted that Asian and African countries had made similar offers.

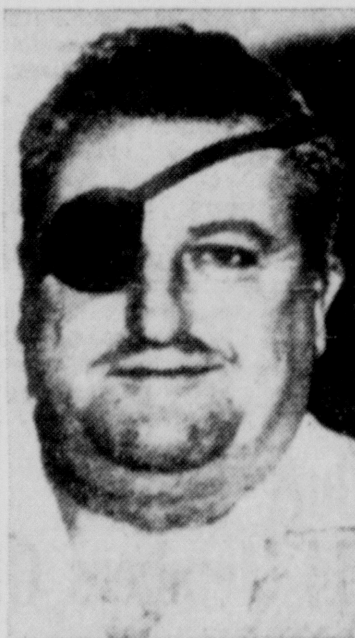

Leaflets distributed by the National Resistance Committee, a political branch of the National Liberation Army commanded by Education Minister Kamel el Din Hussein, declared Egypt agreed to receive the U. N. police only on four conditions:

That the U. N. force is not an occupation force and will leave when Egypt wants it to, that it have nothing to do with internationalization of the Suez Canal, that Egypt can prevent any nation from participating in the force, and that Egypt will permit no Israeli ships to pass through the canal.

Hammarskjold arrived at Cairo's International Airport in a Swiss plane. Four hours later he met with Nasser and Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi.

The secretary general flew here from Abu Suweir, former British air base near Ismailia in the canal zone. He flew there from Italy with a unit of 54 Colombians, reinforcing the newly created international police force.

A party of 44 Yugoslav officers and men was due at Abu Suweir soon.

Storms, Wind Strike Nation Double Blow

(By The Associated Press)

Strong winds and heavy snow dealt a double blow to the northern section of the Midwest Friday.

And the coldest weather of autumn enveloped most of the country.

Minnesota, northern Wisconsin and upper Michigan formed the big snow belt.

"Winds up to 35 m.p.h. reared snow drifts in Michigan's upper Peninsula. Most secondary roads were impassable. Snowplow crews labored to keep the main highways open."

Ironwood, Mich., had 25 inches of snow on the ground—20 inches falling in a 24-hour period. Schools were closed and work virtually halted.

Shipping was at a standstill in northern Michigan ports because icy winds drove loading crews from the docks.

Michigan's lower peninsula was lashed by winds that toppled many utility poles and trees and shattered windows.

Twenty or more boats and freighters were tied up off Point Nipigon in the Straits of Mackinac riding out the storms on Lake Michigan and Lake Huron.

The wind pushed surface water in Saginaw Bay out into Lake Huron, causing a six-foot drop in the level of the bay. The dropoff left Coast Guard boats high and dry. It also forced the Saginaw Malleable Iron Co. to shut down because it lacked water. Some 600 employees were idle.

Minnesota's snow ranged up to a foot in the Duluth and Marshall areas. Highways were hazardous in most of the state. Mrs. Julia Fischnick, 80, and her daughter, Ethel, 42, both of Madison, Wis., were killed when their car skidded on Highway 44 and crashed down a 40-foot embankment near Caledonia, Minn.

The frozen body of Mrs. Lizzie Barts, 84, was found in a field at Wautoma, Wis. She had wandered away from the home of her daughter several hours earlier.

Iron Mike Says: Hawaii Is Endangered If Shooting War Starts

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—Retired Lt. Gen. John W. (Iron Mike) O'Daniel said today he "visualized" the danger of a Communist uprising in the strategic Hawaiian Islands if the cold war should explode into a shooting war. O'Daniel told the Senate Internal Security subcommittee that as commander of the U. S. Army in the Pacific from September, 1952 to April, 1954 he considered there had been a dangerous Communist infiltration of the islands. He said "the danger is just as great or greater" now.

Even then, O'Daniel testified, his command posts regularly conducted exercises in which "I visualized an uprising in the islands simultaneous with an attack from the outside."

O'Daniel testified at a public hearing at which Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) presided.

O'Daniel said he is "delighted" that the subcommittee plans public hearings in Honolulu, tentatively scheduled to start Nov. 30, to investigate communism in the islands.

Harry Bridges, West Coast labor union leader, has threatened to call dock, ship and sugar workers off their jobs in the islands to March in a parade to protest the hearings. Bridges contends the inquiry is aimed at his International Longshoremen and Warehousemen Union.

O'Daniel testified he believes the ILWU is "Communist infiltrated."

Robert Morris, subcommittee counsel, announced that some subcommittee members, perhaps Chairman Eastland (D-Miss) will reach Honolulu Nov. 27, to start closed door questioning of about 40 subpoenaed witnesses. He said Johnston and Sens. Watkins (R-Utah), Welker (R-Idaho) and Butler (R-Md) will sail from San Francisco Nov. 23.

O'Daniel, noting the Hawaiian islands are "very important militarily" as a staging area and supply depot for Far Pacific commands, said "it is common knowledge" the Communists spend $200,000 a year on organizational work in the islands.

Plans Are Made For Refugees To Enter U.S.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—Pierce Gerety, deputy refugee relief chief, arranged to leave by plane today for Vienna to make final arrangements for beginning the flow of 5,000 Hungarian refugees into the United States.

The first of the refugees, all recent escapees from Hungary, may begin arriving by chartered plane Monday under emergency arrangements swiftly drafted after the Hungarian revolt broke out.

All are to be housed at Camp Kilmer, N.J., in Army barracks which are being hastily prepared for them until they can be processed for jobs in this country.

Gerety's main aim, officials said, will be to stress the need for speed in moving refugees who want to come to the United States from temporary camps in Austria.

A "waiver plan" has been sanctioned by Atty. Gen. Brownell, permitting some refugees whose eligibility for American visas is not clear, to be brought to the United States pending final determination of their cases.

Teams of U.S. government refugee specialists in Austria, however, are already conducting refugee interviews and making as many local security checks as possible in each case prior to clearing them for entry into the United States.

The State and Defense Departments have waived the requirement that each refugee must provide a two-year personal history which can be checked.

Congressional legislation may be necessary later, some officials said, to permit some of the refugees who are found ineligible for visas under the "escapee" program to stay in this country.

The first refugees will be flown to American soil by chartered planes arranged by the Intergovernmental Committee for European Migration. Later groups may be transported by ship.

If present plans move ahead as contemplated, the full flow of refugees should begin in about three weeks.

Labor Department experts will be stationed at Camp Kilmer under present plans to interview refugees and to determine whether they are qualified for jobs which they wish to fill. Refugees will be housed and fed until jobs are available for them.

Gerety has several hundred job assurances which he personally will seek to match up with refugee applicants in Austria.

McKeldin Opens Three Stretches Of State Roads

CLINTON, Md., Nov. 16 (AP)—Gov. McKeldin opened three new stretches of highway in separate ceremonies in Prince Georges County today and said they "symbolize Maryland's stepped-up roads program."

"Three in one morning!" the governor exulted over the triple header. "What an achievement for our roads commission and our state! And what a boon for the motoring public in this traffic-snarled section of Maryland."

At the first ribbon-cutting, McKeldin opened a two-mile relocation of the East-West Highway (Maryland 410) between Ager and the intersection of Queens Chapel and Cotesville roads.

An hour later, he opened a 3-mile dual highway section of Edmonston Road from Upshur stretch to Briar Ditch. This section will become a continuation of new Kenilworth avenue in the District of Columbia. Another contract was advertised this month to carry the Kenilworth extension 2½ more miles to Greenbelt where it will join the Washington circumferential highway and provide another dualized entrance to Washington.

The third ceremony was in Clinton, where he opened one lane of relocated Maryland 5, which runs 4.7 miles south to the community of T. B., where it joins U. S. 301.

Jury Indicts 14 Members Of Mill Workers

DENVER, Nov. 16 (AP)—A federal grand jury today indicted 14 officials and staff members of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (Ind.).

They are accused of conspiracy to defraud the United States.

The indictment contends that beginning on June 15, 1949 the 14 defendants conspired with Communist party officials to obtain the services and facilities of the National Labor Relations Board for the benefit of the union "without lawfully and in good faith qualifying the union for those services."

The union which has its headquarters in Denver, was expelled in 1950 by the CIO which accused the mine-mill leaders of being Communist-dominated. The union denied the charge.

The Justice Department said the conspiracy to defraud was accomplished by the defendants through the filing of false affidavits under terms of the Labor-Management Relations Act of 1947. These affidavits require oaths from union officials denying membership in or affiliation with the Communist party.

Maurice Travis, 45, one-time president of the union, was convicted last December on charges of falsely denying Communist affiliations in affidavits filed with NLRB in 1951 and 1952.

Travis was sentenced to eight years and fined $8,000 and is now free on bond pending disposition of an appeal.

Brownell last year petitioned the Subversive Activities Control Board for a determination that the union is Communist-infiltrated, and so ineligible for NLRB services and facilities.

Today's indictment charges that the conspiracy to defraud the United States was carried out in collaboration with Arthur Bary, John Williamson, Gil Green and Fred Fine. All were identified by the Justice Department as Communist party leaders who have been convicted under the Smith Act of conspiracy to advocate violent overthrow of the government.

Producer Faces Juvenile Trial

TOWSON, Md., Nov. 16 (AP)—A petition was filed today to require theatrical producer Don Swann Jr. to appear in Juvenile Court in connection with a raid on a building where police said teenagers drank intoxicants.

A police petition said Swann owns or controls a building raided about three weeks ago. It is near the Hilltop Theater, where Swann produces plays.

Petitions also were filed against 27 juveniles. They are expected to appear in Juvenile Court next week. The action came after a raid on what was termed a fraternity house party.

A petition filed in the Baltimore County court today by Cpl. Thomas Mitchell of the police juvenile bureau contended Swann permitted numerous juveniles to use the building and knew alcoholic beverages were to be consumed.

Mitchell said meetings of the juveniles occurred between Oct. 18 and Nov. 4.

John G. Evans and Ronald L. Wagner, both 18, have been charged with selling intoxicants without a license at the building.

"Four adults, charged with selling liquor to minors in connection with the same case, were found innocent a week ago by Police Magistrate John Caslin.

Youth, 15, Is Found Guilty In Death Of Girl's Father

BALTIMORE, Nov. 16 (AP)—Joseph Thomas Tromberi, 15, was convicted today of second-degree murder in the ambush slaying of his girl friend's father, Leonard H. Burgess.

A Youth Court jury returned the verdict slightly less than four hours after the conclusion of arguments in the sensational case.

Judge James K. Cullen withheld sentence, which under the verdict could be a maximum of 18 years in prison.

Burgess, 32, was shot to death late on the night of Sept. 29 on the front porch of his home in northeast Baltimore.

Young Tromberi gave police a statement, admitted as evidence at his trial, saying he emptied a .22-calibre rifle into Burgess because he had "had relations" with his daughter.

The daughter, 15-year-old Diane Burgess and her mother, face trial on charges of being accessories to the murder.

Diane, ignoring the advice of her own lawyer, testified in young Tromberi's defense. She said her father had forced sexual attentions upon her several times and she was responsible for the idea of killing him.

"He (Tromberi) wouldn't have thought of it if it hadn't been for me," she said.

Defense Counsel Marshall A. Levin urged the jury to find Tromberi innocent by reason of insanity. He contended the boy's "obsessional love" for the girl and his reaction upon being told of the father's attentions made him "temporarily insane" at the time of the slaying.

Levin also called Mrs. Burgess "the key to this case." He said she saw the rifle Tromberi had borrowed from a friend, knew he and her daughter planned Burgess' death and "didn't stop it, but let it run its course."

"She had a pawn to pull the trigger for her," said Levin.

James O'Connor Gentry, assistant State's attorney, argued that the crime was motivated by Burgess' plan to have his daughter committed to an institution as an incorrigible girl.

Under Gentry's cross-examination, she had testified that she had been intimate with Tromberi and another youth, who had fathered a baby she had borne seven months ago.

Gentry had asked for a first-degree murder conviction, which would have carried the death penalty or life imprisonment.

Rain Prevents Forest Fires

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 16 (AP)—Rain, particularly in southern and southwest West Virginia, was credited today with preventing forest fires from spreading.

Most fires, the Conservation Department reported, are under control, although several large fires are still burning.

Announce Hike Of Milk Price

BALTIMORE, Nov. 16 (AP)—A one-cent increase in milk prices and corresponding boosts in other dairy products were announced today by Western Maryland Dairy, Baltimore's largest supplier of milk.

The new prices go into effect Monday, marking the first such change since August, 1955. The firm, a subsidiary of National Dairy Products Corp., said increased labor costs are responsible.

The price of regular delivered milk will be increased from 24 cents a quart to 25 cents, the prevailing price in Philadelphia and one cent lower than in Washington. Homogenized milk will advance from 25 to 26 cents, table cream from 27 to 28 cents for a half pint, cottage cheese from 24 to 25 cents for 12 ounces and chocolate milk from 24 to 26 cents per quart.

The dairy said it would also increase the price of its large loaf of bread from 22 to 24 cents.

Coal Operators Optimistic And Pessimistic Of Future

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 16 (AP)—Southern coal operators considered the factors affecting their industry today and found reason for both pessimism and guarded optimism.

Director Marling J. Ankeny of the U. S. Bureau of Mines, told the Southern Operators Assn. in 15th annual meeting, first ever held outside Washington, D. C., that 1954 may have marked an all-time low point for the industry.

President Joseph E. Moody and Sec. Walter R. Thurmond of the association, in their annual reports, spoke of improvement since then, largely, said Thurmond, from the four-state southern producing region's standpoint, because of the increase in the overseas business.

Mines of the Southern Assn. said Thurmond, produced 37 per cent of the nation's coal last year, and 25 per cent of it or some 50 million tons, was shipped abroad in 1956.

"I do not share the belief expressed by some that this will increase to 100 million tons by 1960; if 75 million tons are exported in that year, it will be a real accomplishment," he said.

Moody and Thurmond deplored what they described as the failure of coal prices to keep pace with production costs.

Thurmond said that wages have increased $12 a day since 1946, but that the price of coal per ton is "approximately what it was in 1948."

This is compelling more small companies to merge and mechanize to keep pace, he said, adding that southern association mines, 32 per cent mechanized in 1942, were 91 per cent mechanized last year.

"Labor rates," he said, "have risen approximately 2.3 times faster than the selling price of coal."

Moody and Thurmond also criticized continuing heavy imports of residual oil, which Moody estimated had cost the coal industry five billion dollars since 1951.

Moody foresaw that because of the Suez crisis, "even if order is restored there will be a period before the full flow of oil can be resumed."

This is Cadillac for 1957—entirely new in design and engineering . . . and bringing to the world's highways a wholly new standard of motor car quality and excellence.

Cadillac's renowned stylists have created a brilliant new Cadillac beauty . . . majestically graceful of line . . . wonderfully exciting in spirit and in concept . . . and with a new balance of chrome and glass and steel.

Cadillac's master coachcrafters have brought a new measure of luxury to the car's interiors . . . with gorgeous new fabrics and leathers . . . with inspiring new colors and patterns . . . and with marvelous new appointments and conveniences on every hand.

And Cadillac's world-famous engineers have introduced a sensational new concept of automotive performance . . . with two great new engines . . . with an even smoother, more responsive Hydra-Matic Drive . . . with greatly improved power steering and power braking . . . with a revolutionary new frame design . . . and with a host of other equally vital engineering advancements.

These dramatic Cadillac achievements are being presented for 1957 in ten individual body styles, including the breath-taking Eldorado series.

We cordially invite you to see . . . to inspect . . . and to drive the brilliantly new 1957 Cadillac at your very first convenience. You'll be welcome at any time.

Bessie Hanks Heads Sport Club

The Women's Sport Club elected officers and discussed its Christmas activities at the dinner meeting Thursday evening at Ali Ghan Country Club. A $5 donation was made to the Allegany-Garrett TB Association.

Mrs. Bessie Hanks was elected president; Mrs. Shirley Eisenberger, vice president; Mrs. Agnes Hersh, secretary and Miss Elizabeth Hoover, treasurer. They will be installed in January.

Instead of bringing articles for a food basket, members were assessed 50 cents to add to a special fund to buy the food for a Christmas basket, which will be given to the Associated Charities. Members are to bring old toys to the December 6 jingle

Winners at bridge were Mrs. Eleanor Lavin, Mrs. Mary Miller, Mrs. Mabel Pierce; at 500, Mrs. Elizabeth Creagan, Mrs. Sara Kelley and Mrs. Leona Bootman. Special awards were won by Mrs. Mildred George and Mrs. Hazel Keech.

Thirty-nine attended. Guests were Miss Adelaide Hession, Mrs. Betty Hughes, Mrs. Bootman, Mrs. Mary Lee Jacopi, Mrs. Madeline Rizer, Miss Helen McKern, Miss Margaret Griffey and Mrs. Mary Bloom. The committee consisted of Mrs. Ann Everline, Mrs. Loretta Haus and Miss Cathleen Diehl. The January committee includes Mrs. Margaret Mackey, Miss Marie Cole and Mrs. Ann Biele.

Opti-Mrs. Make Donations Plan Christmas Party

The Opti-Mrs. Club voted to give $100 to the Friends Aware and $15 to Muscular Dystrophy, at the meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Herbert L. Nesbitt, Rose Hill Avenue. Mrs. David Miller presided and appointed a Nominating committee. It consists of Mrs. Robert Collins, Mrs. Kenneth Shaffer and Mrs. Byron Knight.

Final plans were made for the Christmas party, which will take the place of the December meeting. It will be December 7 at the Cumberland Country Club.

Flintstone Club Plans For Shut-Ins

Two officers were elected and a Christmas party was planned at the meeting of the Flintstone Homemakers Club held at the home of Mrs. Leah Twigg with Mrs. E. H. Roland cohostess.

December 14 was selected for the party, to be held at the home of Mrs. B. C. Robinette. It was decided to bring small gifts for shut-in club members, instead of exchanging jingles. Mrs. Guy Thompson appointed the hostess, Mrs. Carolyn Nixon and Mrs. William Mauzy a Program committee.

Mrs. Paul Oster was elected vice president, and Mrs. Arthur Howard, secretary. The meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer, followed by the Homemakers Creed by Mrs. Russell Dolly.

The background of the hymn, "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God," was given by Mrs. Robinette. She then led the group singing it, and reported on the county Achievement Day, her talk at East Side Homemakers Club as county Health and Safety chairman, and the poultry tour in Washington County.

Roll call was answered with individual alteration problems. Miss Mary Wise talked on altering ready made, using colored slides to illustrate. Members were advised to alter along inside seams, leaving the side seams alone, and at the waist instead of the hemline. Miss Lena Twigg told of the Homemakers tour to New York.

The meeting closed with singing, "Till We Meet Again." Guests were Mrs. Russell Smith, county president; and Mrs. Oka Twigg. Members attending included Mrs. Blain Burgess, Mrs. Howard Willison, Mrs. William Heavner, Mrs. H. K. Chaney, Mrs. L. M. Wigfield, Mrs. Eugene Kinton, Mrs. Chester Robinette, Mrs. Howard Robinette, Mrs. H. R. Ash and Miss Pearl Wilson.

Sponsor Party

District 1, Maryland State Nurses Association will hold a public games party and bake sale for the benefit of its educational program.

It is to be November 25, at 8:15 in St. Mary's hall, Oldtown Road. Mrs. Mary Etta Early is chairman.

MRS. ROBERT JOSEPH KIDD

Helen Lee Sitzler Becomes Bride Of Robert J. Kidd

Miss Helen Lee Sitzler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Russell Sitzler, 2070 Queens Road, East, Charlotte, N. C. former residents, became the bride of Robert Joseph Kidd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Michael Kidd, 600 Hempstead Place, Charlotte, November 11. The ceremony was solemnized at 4 p. m. in Myers Park Baptist Church with Rev. W. Emory Trainham Jr. officiating. Bouquets of white chrysanthemums and snapdragons and two seven-branch candelabra with white tapers decorated the altar.

Mrs. Charles E. Fishel was the bride's matron of honor, while Miss Edith Bodell was maid of honor; Nancy Stephens, junior bridesmaid; and Janet Stephens, flower girl. Frank Benson, Atlanta, Ga., served as Ring bearer, and Henry W. Bridges, Waycross, Ga., Thomas Brooks, Hollywood, Calif., were the ushers. Miss Ann Royer played a program of organ music and the traditional wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of her own design of Cerulean blue Celine lace fashioned on a sheath lines with a mantel train extending from the Empire midriff. The rounded portrait neckline, edged with the delicate pattern of the lace, was lightly embroidered with seed pearls and stones. Her veil of blue imported silk illusion fell from a profile of matching ostrich plume. Her only ornament was a diamond pendant, heirloom of her maternal grandmother. She carried an imported French beaded clutch bag topped with white Phalaenopsis orchids.

Her honor attendants wore identical sheath dresses of blue lace over taffeta with rounded neckline and a cumberbund which formed a bustle effect with flowing back panels. They wore matching half hats of ostrich plumes, and carried cascade crescent bouquets of yellow roses, rust and bronze chrysanthemums. The junior bridesmaid and flower girl wore blue taffeta full length dresses with scoop neckline and full skirts, and sashes with large back bows extending to the floor. The junior bridesmaid carried a crescent bouquet the same as the honor attendants, and the flower girl carried a basket filled with yellow roses, rust and bronze chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Sitzler chose a powder blue all over embroidered faille cocktail length dress with matching velvet trim and a matching blue satin pearl encrusted hat. With it she wore pale pink camellias. Mrs. Kidd selected a blue lace sheath over taffeta and blue velvet hat for the wedding. Her corsage was of orchids.

The bride is a graduate of Penn Hall Junior College, Chambersburg, Pa.; and attended Ringling School of Art, Sarasota, Fla., and The Art Students League in New York. She is a member of Myers Park Country Club. Mr. and Mrs. Sitzler were residents of Cumberland for 23 years. Associated with the Celanese Corporation, Mr. Sitzler was transferred from here to New York in 1952, then to Charlotte in 1954. The bridegroom is a graduate of Culver Military Academy, Culver, Ind., and attended the University of Georgia. He is at present stationed in the U. S. Army.

Bottomf Is Individual Champion

George F. Bottomf won the sixth annual Individual championship of the Western Maryland Bridge Association. Forty players, playing 27 boards with a top of eight on each and an average of 108 featured the championship Individual played Thursday evening at the Woman's Civic Club.

Mr. Bottomf had a score of 138; second place winner was Mrs. Ralph Nevy with 133; third, Mrs. J. P. Paddelford with 129; fourth, Mrs. Fred Puderbaugh, 128½; fifth, William A. Douglas, 121½; sixth, Miss Loretta Hanna, 120.

November 20, the "Mrs. Russell Bortz championship" game will be played at the club house, by the Potomac Valley Bridge Club.

Next week's Full Master Point Game of the association will be played November 23, instead of Thursday, because of Thanksgiving.

The "Mrs. George Bottomf Championship" game of the Cumberland Duplicate Bridge Club will be played November 24 at 1 p. m. as scheduled.

The annual "Team of Four-Board a Match" championship of the association will be played November 29. All players, who have not formed their teams, are requested to contact Mrs. Emmett Jones, PA 2-8470.

Jayncee Program Outlined $25 Given Police Boys

Projects for the coming year were announced by committee chairmen at the regular dinner meeting of the Jayncees held at the Cumberland Country Club with Mrs. William M. Wilson presiding.

Mrs. William Russell, head of the Civic committee, suggested the organization contribute to the Police Boys Club, and a donation of $25 was made. Her group also will promote a collection of used toys for the Associated Charities.

Plans also were made to assist the Jaycees in Christmas shopping for the needy, with Mrs. Alvin Goodman chairman. The number of children who will be aided will depend upon the profits of the Jaycee Winter Dance December 7. Mrs. Raymond Dorn, Social chairman, reported the club will help the Jaycees in the decorations; and the Jaycees have made tentative plans for a square dance.

A children's style show and card party also is being planned. (Continued on Page 13)

From GOD...to MAN

A field of wheat . . . a human soul!

Gifts from God—upon which man puts the imprint of his own labor, and faith, and wisdom.

The result; a loaf of bread . . . a Christian.

Life is teamwork with God. Man receives what he cannot create, and fashions what he needs. But between resource and product are vital steps.

Between a field of wheat and a loaf of bread must be the mill and the oven.

Between the new-born soul and the mature Christian must be a Church and a religious home.

True thanksgiving is the sacred resolve to use what God has given to fashion what God desires.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Frostburg PO Notes Changes In Rural Mail

New Schedule Effective Today

FROSTBURG—Several changes will be made in mail delivery service on Rural Route 2 at the Frostburg Post Office, effective today.

That portion of RD 2 now serving Upper Eckhart Mines, Frog Hollow and Parkersburg Road in Eckhart, and Morantown will be transferred to rural carrier from Mt. Savage for service. Mail for that portion will still continue to be served from the Frostburg Post Office and the direction of travel by the rural carrier will be the same with the following exception.

That portion of Parkersburg Road between Kelly's Pump and the new Route 40 will be transferred to RD 1 (Frostburg carrier). The portion of the new highway between Frog Hollow and Parkersburg Road will be transferred from RD 1 to RD 2 and receive service approximately at 10 a. m.

Rural Route 2 will still continue to serve Zihlman, Borden Mines, Consol Village and Garrett County. The direction of travel, however, will be changed somewhat, with the carrier serving Consol Village first. This will result in residents of Consol receiving mail in the morning instead of the afternoon. From Consol the carrier will travel via Laurel and Hope Road in Borden, then to the lower end of Morantown and back through Zihlman. Service will be extended to RD 2 in Garrett County with the carrier traveling to the top of Long Stretch, turning left and serving several families who are now on rural delivery service. He will travel via Garlitz Road and service on McKenzie Hollow Road from the Frostburg pumping station to Route 40 at Milt Race's farm.

Air Defense Need Stressed In Talk To Homemakers

MT. SAVAGE — T-Sgt. Joseph P. Hodge, of the Pittsburgh Air Defense Filter Center spoke to the Mt. Savage Homemakers Thursday night on the need for an active Air Defense and the role of the Air Force in Civil Defense.

Sergeant Hodge showed a film entitled, "The Dangerous Mile," which portrayed the Ground Observer Corps in action and emphasized the importance of this branch of Civil Defense.

He pointed out that adequate civil defense is the balance of power in any cold war, or hot war, between nations of comparable strength and can deter attack. It is based upon the principle of self-protection by the individual, extended to include mutual self-protection on the part of groups and communities.

Volunteers are still needed in all branches of Civil Defense including: fire, police, medical, radio, rescue and GOC and persons interested are urged to contact the Director of Civil Defense for Allegany County, William Barger, or his assistant Charles Smith of Cumberland.

ceiving mail in the morning instead of the afternoon. From Consol the carrier will travel via Laurel and Hope Road in Borden, then to the lower end of Morantown and back through Zihlman. Service will be extended to RD 2 in Garrett County with the carrier traveling to the top of Long Stretch, turning left and serving several families who are now on rural delivery service. Kiwanians Hear Cal Price At Charter Night

Veteran Editor Talks On "Conservation"

KEYSER — Cal Price, veteran editor and publisher of the Poca-hontas County Times, at Marlinton, W. Va., was guest speaker at the annual Charter Night dinner-dance of Keyser Kiwanis Club in the Upper Potomac Shrine Club on U. S. Route 50, Thursday evening. Mr. Price, known to several members of the Keyser Kiwanis Club and to other persons in this area, discussed Conservation in the eastern West Virginia area and life generally in his home area.

Much of his talk was delivered in his natural home-spoken manner, descriptive and entertaining. In discussion before his talk, he was asked how long he had been a newspaper reporter and editor, and he replied, that he had just recently checked the subject and said he found he has served the people in newspaper work for 60 years and two months.

In his life he has spoken to many state and several national organizations, and his speaking has been in his natural manner, just as he has written the news and editorials about big and small topics of his time. He reported with pride that he had once been honored with a doctor's degree in conservation by a university.

Mr. Price was accompanied here by his daughter, Mrs. Jane Price Sharp.

Following dinner served by the staff, at the Upper Potomac Shrine Club, under direction of Mrs. A. K. VanScoy, manager of the club, and the address by Mr. Price, Donald Heare, Kiwanis Club president-elect introduced the Kiwanians and friends and a short talk was given by President Robert Whitlatch.

Guests included: Congressman and Mrs. Harley Stagers, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Ridder, (Rotary), Mr. and Mrs. John Barger, (press and Rotary); Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davidson, (Lions' Club); Mr. and Mrs. Earle Bush, Past Lt. Gov. and Mrs. Tom Sites, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Veach, and Mr. and Mrs. Earle Ebert, Kiwanians, all of Petersburg, and Lt. Gov. and Mrs. Roy Harman, Kiwanis, West Virginia District. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis, (Yeoman Club) and the officers, members and wives of the Keyser Club.

Operetta Highlights Education Week

American Education Week at Valley High School began on Monday and Tuesday evenings with an operetta, "Marianne," presented by the Music Department. Wednesday evening was Open House at the school with visitation and program. Pictured standing left to right are cast members of the operetta, Jim Ritchie, Dick Rennie, Mackey McKenzie, Gordon Stevenson, Lionel Baker, Jim Dick, Ann Perry Chappell, George Winters, Patsy Hersick, David Weir, Charles Meese and Kenneth Grandstaff. Seated are Paul Barclay, Sandy Dillon, Barbara Mowbray and Kenneth Metz, leads of the two-night performances. The chorus of 100 voices was excellent in their fine rendition of the many selections throughout the three acts.

Ellerslie PTA Plans Yule Treat

ELLERSLIE — The Parent-Teacher Association met in the school, Thursday evening. Mrs. Grace Miller was in charge of the program. The theme was "Thanksgiving". The group sang a Thanksgiving song and repeated the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Eleanor O'Brien read the One Hundredth Psalm and Miss Roberta Elias read a poem. The group sang "Come Ye Faithful People".

Miss Alma Logsdon, principal, announced the pupils would have a half day, Monday, November 19 and the Thanksgiving vacation would start Wednesday, November 21 with school opening the following Monday, November 26.

Thirty-two members attended. Miss Logsdon's room three won the room award.

Refreshments were served by the mothers of grades five and six. A committee of three—Mrs. Mary Porter, Mrs. Peggy Emerick and Mrs. Ruby Harrison was appointed to plan a Christmas treat for the children.

Foreign Affairs To Be Topic At AAUW Today

FROSTBURG—"Israel and the Arab Problem" will be the topic of discussion at a meeting of the International Relations Study Group of the Frostburg-Georges Creek Branch of the AAUW this evening at the home of Miss Kathleen Wolfe, 49 Broadway.

Dr. Hazel G. Ramsay, chairman, will lead the discussion in which members and visitors will participate. Guests will be Mrs. William H. Blake, chairman of the Cumberland Branch International Relations Group, members of her group and Blake.

A report will be made regarding an outside speaker for the dinner meeting February 5. Dr. Ramsay said it may be possible to have a speaker from the State Department.

Publications from the State Department to be shown include ones on Suez, China and the United States policy, how public opinion counts, how foreign policy is made, "Freedom's New Task of Waging Peace," new prospectus of the UN after 10 years and the UN in US foreign policy.

Hostesses include Miss Helen Hough, Miss Datha Thomas and Miss Bernice Winner. The usual brief personal chat will be held at 7:15 with the discussion beginning at 7:30.

Future Teachers Promote Education Week Program

MT. SAVAGE — The Dr. Charles L. Kopp Club Future Teachers of America has been working to promote America Education Week in the community.

Under the direction of Mary Margaret Holt, chairman, letters were sent to all the churches and organizations in Ellerslie, Corriganville and Mount Savage reminding them to visit the school during the week. Posters were placed throughout the school and surrounding community and the club used the PA system to bring the theme of the day before the student body.

He was a son of the late Christian and Amanda (Jeffries) Bowers. Twice-married his first wife was the late Mrs. Eliza Jane (Swadley) Bowers.

Surviving are his second wife, Mrs. Mabel Bowers, seven children, Mrs. Cleda Shreve, Brushy Run; Mrs. Clara Ward, Harrisonburg, Va.; Mrs. Clara Tetter, and Mrs. Clara Scully, both of Richmond, Ind.; Mrs. Claretta Alt, of Cumberland; Clyde Bowers, Singers Glen, Va. and Carl Bowers, of Brushy Run; 32 grandchildren, 34 great grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Mr. Bowers was a member of the Brethren Church. A funeral service will be conducted tomorrow at 2 p. m. at the Brick Church, Upper Tract, with Rev. D. B. Wampler, officiating.

Interment will be in the Upper Tract Cemetery. The body is at the Thrush Funeral Home here and will be taken to the home of Alvin Shreve, Brushy Run, this evening.

KAREN SUE KEECH

Karen Sue Keach, five-year-old daughter of Robert P. and Eleanor Jean (Temke) Keach, of 203 Wempe Drive, died yesterday morning. She had been ill for several years.

She was born in Cumberland on April 14, 1951.

Surviving, besides her parents, is a brother, Robert P. Keach Jr., at home.

The body is at the Scarpelli Funeral Home. A Mass of the Angels will be celebrated Monday at 9 a. m. in St. Mary's Catholic Church, and burial will be in the church cemetery.

HARRY M. DAWSON

Harry M. Dawson, 73, of Jane Frazier Village, died Thursday in Memorial Hospital where he was admitted Wednesday.

Born in Lancaster County, Pa., he was a retired carpenter.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Maude (Riley) Dawson; three sons, Lester K. Dawson, Coatsville, Pa.; Homer L. Dawson, Lonaconing, and Harry M. Dawson Jr., Hagerstown; three daughters, Mrs. Charles Ward, Washington, Fort Ashby, and Mrs. Paul Weaver, Cresaptown; three stepdaughters, Mrs. Top Barnes and Mrs. James Hicks, both of this city, and Mrs. Eleanor Kerns, Dagus Mines, Pa.; 13 grandchildren, 13 step-grandchildren and 11 step-great-grandchildren.

The body is at the Hafer Funeral Home where services will be conducted Sunday at 2 p. m. by Rev. Hartley L. Wigfield, pastor of Prosbury Assembly of God Church. Interment will be in Rose Hill Cemetery.

MRS. MARY C. SILFIES

ELK GARDEN — Mrs. Mary Catherine Silfies, 93, died Thursday in Garrett County (Md.) Memorial Hospital, Oakland.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. M. F. Mattick of near here, with whom she resided; Mrs. F. W. Bayless, Willsboro, N. Y., and Mrs. H. C. Ferry, Hornell, N. Y., and four sons, E. P. Silfies, Mt. Storm; C. E. Silfies, Hot Springs, Ark.; D. M. Silfies, Selingsgrove, Pa., and F. C. Silfies, Charleston.

The body has been shipped to the Robertson Funeral Home, Hornell, for services. Interment will be in Almond Cemetery there.

The Oil Life-Line May Need Revision

Britain, France, and the rest of Western Europe depend on the Middle East for oil that has come through the Suez Canal and pipes to the Mediterranean. The United States does not depend on oil from that source. There is plenty of production from vast (if not unlimited) natural resources to fill all demand on this side of the Atlantic.

But, with the Suez Canal blocked, it will no doubt be partly up to American oil companies to prevent, if they can, an acute oil crisis from developing in Europe. The present hope, of course, is that a cease-fire may permit the reopening of the canal to traffic just as soon as the sunken ships in it can be removed. Salvage experts say it may take months to clear the channel. Meanwhile there is a plan. Except in Iraq, refineries are operating normally. From the Middle East, tankers are being sent loaded around the Cape of Good Hope. Empty tankers are headed for South America or U. S. crude oil ports to pick up cargo for Europe.

If there is no lasting cease-fire, and if the stoppage of the pipelines persists, the oil shortage in Britain and Europe will become acute no matter how the oil companies try to keep the supply going. Rationing is already being planned there in case of necessity. Any prospect of a long-term breakdown in oil via the Mediterranean will, of course, make tanker-building a crash program for nations on both sides of the Atlantic.

What may or may not have to be done to keep oil moving to Europe is one of the major questions as yet unanswered. But oil is what Western Europe must have if it is to remain strong as a part of the free world.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky
Skilled Labor Market

Why are there currently astonishing shortages of skilled professionals such as school teachers, nurses, office workers, etc.? There has been an enormous increase in our population but it is difficult in our larger cities to find household help and many of those who say that they can be stenographers and typists need first to learn how to spell or even to answer the telephone with the courtesy normal to those who are not frightened by a strange voice.

A city like New York has a difficult time getting teachers, not only good teachers, but any kind of teachers, anyone with a qualification. I was minded of that by a sentence in an address by the president of the Board of Education, Charles H. Silver, about the parochial schools of this city which provide for approximately 350,000 children. Silver said that if the city school system had to absorb these children, it would have to hire "13,000 more teachers and supervisors, if we could find them."

It is the phrase, "if we could find them" that is so startling because that seems to be the universal voice of despair. Of course, the federal government employs about 2,300,000 persons, many of whom could be dispensed with, according to the reports of the Hoover Commission. In economic terms, this means that the labor market for white collar workers is tightened sufficiently to create a shortage, to lift wages somewhat, to increase the use of mechanical devices and to force the acceptance of careless work.

I recently received a letter from a bank, an institution where the correct spelling of names may be very important; nevertheless throughout this letter my name was spelled incorrectly. If I questioned the girl's boss, he would only say, "Where can you find careful girls these days?" Of course, they are to be found among the women over 40 who have not been corrupted by the easy ways of inflated living.

Another factor in this situation is the development of new forms of earning a living. Modelling, for instance, has been expanded into a major form of employment for women and many girls, who might have been teachers or nurses or stenographers, find the compensation higher, the work more intriguing and the opportunities for personal advancement greater in modelling than in other trades. The public usually only knows of models who become "celebrities" in the night club sense, but many of these girls are in this business not to advertise themselves but to earn a living.

Television is making a place for a more limited number of women-workers, some of whom become announcers because they can pronounce words inoffensively. These enunciators are very well paid and have the additional advantage of being able to project their personalities. Such girls might be excellent teachers but probably at a tenth of the wages they now receive.

At any rate, there are so many ways of earning a living these days that the usual professions prove less attractive than they did two generations ago. From a social standpoint, however, the new professions are of little value whereas teachers, nurses, stenographers, etc., are essential to our lives and our welfare.

The difficulty is that the law of demand and supply does not work in these fields. Teachers are wanted and needed, but their wages remain low because it comes out of the taxpayer's pocket and he is already taxed beyond endurance. So he takes the second best and even worse rather than increase taxes. As regards office help, too much preparation is required—and costly preparation—for just ordinary jobs to be attractive and a girl who has spent four years at a college, even if she never learned anything, which is a possibility, regards herself as superior and deserving of high pay. Certainly, if a girl has had to spend four years to become a nurse, two years at college and two years of training, she feels that she is entitled to commensurate compensation even if she is no improvement on the old-fashioned nurse who only spent two years at nurse's training and the rest of her life learning a difficult profession.

If we ever get a 30-hour week for professionals, the shortage will be so acute that we shall have to import help from other countries, as we are actually importing nurses, when we can get them, from Canada.

U.S. Ready To Help U.N. Expose Soviet Russia

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — The United States stands ready to cooperate with the United Nations in exposing the acts of aggression by Soviet Russia in the Middle East.

A scheme to send Communist "volunteers" into Egypt — officially and openly endorsed by the Moscow and Peking governments—even though the United Nations has received pledges from Egypt herself that she will respect a "cease-fire," is regarded here as a climax to many months of plotting and intrigue in the Middle East by the Communists.

Israel's reprisals against border raids and the decision of Britain and France to use force to secure free passage of the Suez Canal are merely effects—not causes of the Soviet intervention.

The discovery that millions of dollars worth of arms were supplied Egypt and that along with the munitions and equipment went Soviet technicians and aviators indicates plainly that the Communist activity started many months ago and that the present muddled situation was brought about by the Moscow regime. Proof of this is in the possession of the British government, as described in Parliament.

President Eisenhower hinted at his Wednesday press conference that the United States might be willing to go a considerable distance to back up the U. N. in measures to prevent a world war that might arise as a result of Middle Eastern aggression by Soviet Russia. He pointedly said that "it would be the duty of the United Nations, which would include the United States, to oppose such an effort" (the sending by Soviet Russia of "volunteers" to Egypt).

Mr. Eisenhower further declared that, if the United Nations took some steps in that direction, this country "would again try to be their supporters in any such action."

When the President was questioned as to what form American action might take if new armed forces were introduced in the Middle East, he added: Not Limited To Resolutions

"Well, I can't tell what it would be. But the United Nations, if you will read its charter, is not by any means limited to resolutions. And, in one instance, at least, showed that it was not so limited. So I don't know exactly what we would do. It would depend upon the circumstances."

On The Side

By E. V. Durling

Conscientiously continuing my Paris research on women in the interests of our horses and women department, I visited a section of the Luxembourg Gardens which is exclusively devoted to statues of celebrated females. It includes memorials to St. Genevieve, patron saint of Paris, Mary Queen of Scots, Laura de Noves and many others. You are, of course, familiar with the career of Mary Queen of Scots. However, a fact rarely mentioned by historians is that she was the first woman golfer. As for Laura de Noves, she is the character to whom Petrarch dedicated all those sonnets. When Petrarch penned these loving tributes to Laura, she was a married woman and the mother of 11 children. In her youth she was the winner of one of the first beauty contests ever recorded in history.

HORSES

As for the horses, I completed my current research on that subject with a visit to the course at Enghein. This is an extremely beautiful race track. Its program includes two steeplechase races, three hurdle races and two harness races. The harness events are run on a special course. In the last event of the day, 26 harness horses started. Some scramble! The life of a French handicapper must be a very trying one. Imagine trying to handicap a program of steeplechase races, hurdle races and harness races. However, the Holland handicappers are faced with an even more difficult task. The day I attended the races at the Hague they had a hurdle race, a steeplechase race, three harness races and a running race. Longchamp is the most beautiful racecourse in France but my favorite is St. Cloud. That is also very beautiful. It is additionally attractive because you can see the horses at all times. They do not disappear into a forest. Also they run in the same direction as in the United States.

Fatigue Is Big Factor In Cause Of Accidents

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Two Navy jets were cruising along at an altitude of 400 feet. The left wing and nose of the first dropped and the plane went into a spin and crashed to earth. What caused the accident?

The clue was found in the flight surgeon's report in the U. S. Navy Medical News Letter. The pilot began moving into a new home three days prior to the accident and spent the weekend completing the job. On the fateful morning he appeared weary and exhausted at his station and was overheard to say, "If I get through this hop, I've got it made."

The weather had been hot and humid and the pilot must have perspired freely. He flew for 15 minutes with his canopy closed, making the cockpit an oven. The crash occurred 15 minutes later. The medical officer felt that the man lost consciousness due to heat, exhaustion, and salt depletion. Extreme fatigue was another possibility.

Years ago two cargo planes left Chicago for Denver. On reaching its destination the lead plane made no attempt to land but continued west until it crashed into the mountains. Since the ill-fated craft was equipped for instrument flying and visibility was perfect, it was reasoned that pilot and co-pilot were fast asleep when they reached Denver in both instances, fatigue may have played a role. Had the pilots been awake and alert, the tragedy might not have occurred.

Wearyness also is an enemy of the motorist. Every year thousands of men and women get into trouble when they doze at the wheel. Many accidents on the farm are in this category. In the past, farmers plowed as long as the team could take it, and then quit. Now, tractors equipped with headlights enable them to work continuously far into the night.

An example is the farmer who went to the house at noon. Lunch wasn't ready so he took a glass of milk and stomped out of the house, back to work. Within an hour he tangled with the tractor and lost a hand. Here, fatigue plus anger was responsible.

Fatigue is a serious hazard for anyone who drives or works around dangerous equipment. Stimulants, including coffee, help temporarily but if the pace continues the individual may encounter not only an accident but a heart attack, high blood pressure, or an ulcer.

TOBACCO CHEWING

L. E. writes: I thought that chewing tobacco no longer was done but I met a man recently who told me he still chaws, and his doctor says his circulation was affected by the habit. Please comment.

REPLY: You must not be in the "chawing" set, as 81 million pounds of tobacco are chewed annually. Dr. David L. Simon and associates at the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine did some research on the effect of chewing tobacco on the circulation in older men. They found it increas-

The husband dutifully toddled off to the purser—and that's when he found out that the Ile de France had rescued over 800 survivors from the ill-fated Andrea Doria and was indeed streaming post-haste back to New York.

White House, For Some Reason, Cancels Judge Saund Broadcast

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — Judge D. S. Saund campaigned for Congress all fall by saying: "If elected I will go to India."

He was paraphrasing Eisenhower's famous 1952 pledge that if elected he would go to Korea. But Judge Saund wasn't joking. In impassioned voice he told how Indians misunderstood the United States, had the wrong impression about prejudice. He said that he had found no prejudice against color in California, had been elected a local judge, would tell the story of no race prejudice if he was elected to Congress.

On November 6, Judge Saund was elected. Immediately he got in touch with the Voice of America in Washington, offered to broadcast to India and other parts of the world to tell the story of how, for the first time in history, a native-born Indian, now a naturalized American, had been elected to Congress.

The Voice of America promptly accepted his offer, arranged for him to come to Washington and broadcast November 15.

Judge Saund had purchased his airplane ticket and was to leave Los Angeles November 14. Suddenly he got word from the Voice of America that the broadcast was cancelled.

What he did not know was that the Voice of America had received a memorandum from the White House. It was a direct order that Congressman-elect Saund was not to broadcast to India or any other place. No reason was given. It was hinted unofficially, however, that there were alleged irregularities in his election campaign.

A checkup on Judge Saund's election revealed that he had spent between eight and ten thousand dollars, which is modest. There was no indication of irregularity. His opponent, Mrs. Jacqueline Cochran Odum, former head of the WASPs, founder of a beauty cream company, and wife of financier Floyd Odum, had spent five or six times as much.

In Washington, the representative of Floyd Odum is George Allen, one of the closest of Ike Eisenhower's personal friends. Allen is a director of the Atlas Corporation, parent company of the far-flung Odum financial empire. He was also the original partner in the Eisenhower Gettysburg farm, and has been a partner with the President in a Howard Johnson restaurant in Washington, D. C. He plays bridge with the President at Gettysburg.

What part George Allen played in the mysterious memo from the White House to the Voice of America could not be ascertained. But those who knew of his close relationship with Ike wondered.

NOTE—Judge Saund plans to go to India immediately after Congress adjourns, or at any other time the administration desires it.

Conflict Of Interest

A top government consultant who was caught in a conflict of interest has quietly returned to his government job. He is John C. Clay, loaned to the government by National Starch Products in 1952 long enough to push through the company's application for tax amortization.

A House judiciary subcommittee, which investigated Clay, called his case "the most unusual illustration of services performed by a (government consultant) for an employer by means of an expense account."

Yet, despite the congressional blast, Clay was quietly rehired last month by the Commerce Department and assigned to the Defense Services Administration.

What outraged the judiciary subcommittee was an entertainment expense account which National Starch Products gave him while in Washington. In one year, Clay spent $2,300 entertaining fellow government employees who could be helpful to his company.

Crisis Capsules

The National Security Council has definitely recommended backing Britain, France and Israel in case of Soviet intervention in the Middle East. This was the outcome of a grave, three-hour meeting November 8. . . . Secretary of Defense Wilson took the lead in pleading that we cannot let the Russians take over the strategic Middle East oil fields. Adm. Arthur Radford, the Joint Chiefs chairman, gave a cold military estimate of what we could do to stop Russia. . . . Our strategy will be to localize the fighting, if possible, to the Middle East. . . . Despite British-French protests to the contrary, Central Intelligence has reported flatly that our allies knew in advance about Israel's plans to attack Egypt. Yet they kept us so completely in the dark that Secretary of State Dulles expected an attack on Jordan.

The Onlooker

By Brother Barnabas

Wherever an important work is being done there is always a group of onlookers, kibitzers, some suggesting it might have been done otherwise, some expressing gratitude or congratulation.

This is so all the way from building a mousetrap or a skyscraper, managing a farm, a factory or a household, to holding the helm of the ship of state as she outrides tempestuous seas.

Some onlookers are chary of suggestions, believing that the man who knows what he is doing is better able to do it than anybody else.

Others with childish curiosity will want to tear the thing to pieces to find out what inside makes it click. They become scrabble or crossword puzzle addicts, or automobile do-it-yourself mechanics.

Onlookers And Inlookers

Take the hospital for example. The onlooker has no idea of the intricacies involved in the operation of this one of the most beneficent institutions in our society.

If the onlooker will become an inlooker, whether by a doctor's prescription or accident, he will see a retinue of immaculate white-robed nurses, bespectacled doctors and diagnosticians, scalp and needle operators, each with his proper insignia, flitting up and around the corridors, in surgery or maternity wards, in private rooms and halls.

One may follow the assembly line all the way from matriculation to his demitting papers at the desk and be chuted out a well person.

He may be cured of something he didn't know he had, and she may be the mother of triplets, in which case the father will go to the hospital from shock.

And Education Week

This matter of Education Week is open house. During the week the schoolrooms have been tidied up and decorated with fall flowers and foliage, and everything and everybody has spruced up for the occasion of visitation.

The walls have been lined with pictures, carvings and bric-a-brac, in demonstration of the arts and skills developed by pupils under the tutelage of competent and longsuffering instructors of the Gibson girl or Howard Chandler Christy type; while parents and friends look on with evident pride and appreciation.

The pupils themselves have a different slant. They have acquired sophistication. Tom has become Thomas, and Bill "Billious."

"Billious, how are you making out in school?" asked Bill's father. "Fine," said Bill. "Teacher told me the other day if all her pupils were like me she would close the school tomorrow, and that means I know enough."

Believe it or not! Two men went up to church to pray. One was named Babbitt, and he thanked God that he had made a lot of money, he could sport a gold Cadillac, sailed his own yacht, could spend his winters in Florida or Bermuda, and his summers in Canada, could pay half the preacher's salary, bankroll the campaign expenses and contribute to all worthy causes.

The other was a schoolteacher, and he bowed himself in humility and said, "O God, be very merciful to me, for I was that man's teacher."

Big Business is coming more and more to recognize the commercial value of co-operative fund-raising for the operation and maintenance of colleges and the increase of teacher's salaries.

In eight years over two-and-a-half million dollars has been contributed by 409 corporations and individuals in Indiana, and the movement is spreading all over the country. Corporation executives are alert to the needs of higher education.

The Mills Of The Gods

In one's appraisals the onlooker must not fail to page our local Mt. Olympus, the home of the gods, headed by Zeus, the major domo of the hierarchy, with headquarters at City Hall.

It is said that the mills of the gods grind slowly, but they grind exceeding small. They must do that for there is a lot of grist to grind. Into the hopper are cast all matters of city housekeeping, water supply, policing, fire protection, street improvements and wildcat proposals, together with all crabbing, griping and maledictions of irate citizens seeking redress.

The Holy Scriptures have something to say about the dilemmas of the Council (Matthew 5:22): "Every one who is angry with his brother shall be in danger of the judgment; and whosoever shall say to his brother Raca shall be in danger of the council; and whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of the hell of fire." So be careful what you say.

Among the gods, are Clotho, Lachesis, and Antropos — the spinner, the twister, and the severer. The clerk is the spinner, councilmen are the twisters, the city attorney is the severer.

An apparently cultured woman dropped into a New York City cigar store one day and bought a dozen cigars. Two days later she dropped in and bought another dozen. On her return a few days later for still another purchase, the clerk said, "Pardon me for being so inquisitive, but may I ask why you buy cigars in this fashion?"

She replied, "I ride on the upper deck of the city bus and whenever I see a guttersniper picking up cigar stubs, I toss him a cigar, and he thinks he is getting something from God."

Respectfully and uncompromisingly, BROTHER BARNABAS

ROMNEY, Nov. 16 — Jerry Hannas, Romney High School quarterback, wound up his high school football career in a blaze of glory today by figuring prominently in the scoring of both touchdowns as Coach Wes Abrams' Pioneers concluded their 1956 campaign with a 14-6 victory over the Berkeley Springs High School Indians.

Hannas ran 45 yards to set up the initial score then passed 11 yards to Paul Heavener for the 14 in the second period. In the final quarter, Jerry intercepted a pass and galloped 71 yards for the second score. Minutes later he pilfered another Berkeley Springs aerial and sprinted 51 yards to the Indians' 20 before being stopped. He also passed to Don Hannas for both of Romney's extra points.

Blocked Punt Paves Way

A bad pass from center resulted in a blocked punt that paved the way for Berkeley Springs' touchdown in the third stanza. Coach Jerry Calhoun's team recovered on its own four and two plays later Gale Smith went over for the score. Don Hannas blocked the kick for extra point.

Fumbles on both sides marred play in the opening period but in the second quarter Jerry Hannas started Romney on its way by dashing 45 yards to the Berkeley 25. The Pioneers then drove to the one but two offside penalties set them back to the 11. Heavener snared Jerry Hannas' pass for the touchdown.

Don Hannas blocked the kick for extra point after Berkeley had scored a touchdown in the third period, thus preventing the Indians from tying the score.

Jerry Hannas made victory certain in the final period when he swiped a Berkeley Springs pass and covered 71 yards on his touchdown run. Later his 51-yard pass interception thrilled the crowd but Romney was unable to score again as the game ended with the home team in possession on the Berkeley 30.

Heavener Stands Out

Paul Heavener, left end, of the Pioneers, also playing his final high school game, stood out on both offense and defense for the winners.

Romney ended the season with a 4-6 record and a 2-4 mark in the P.V.C. Berkeley's overall record was 6-4 and 1-3 for its first season in the conference. The lineups:

BROWN LEADS SYRACUSE AGAINST ANCE RIVAL

LED BY JIMMY BROWN, their All-American candidate and one of the all-time greats in rushing in the college history, Syracuse goes into its last game of the season today against an ancient rival, Colgate, hoping to win another for a fine season mark. Syracuse has lost but one game this year. Colgate and Syracuse have met 56 times. Brown, 212-pound halfback, has picked up half the Syracuse yardage this year.

Buemi Paces PVC Scorers In Football

Deaf School Star Scores 74 Points

Charles Roger Buemi, of the West Virginia School for the Deaf, won the individual scoring championship of the Potomac Valley Conference for the 1956 season by amassing 74 touchdowns on 12 touchbacks and two conversions in five games.

Three players, namely, John Frye, Petersburg; Jim Vetter, Moorefield; and Bobby Sherman, Moorefield, scored eight touchdowns each to finish in a triple tie for third place with 48 points each.

Nelson Dennis of Keyser High's championship eleven was next on the list with 43 markers.

South Carolinians Mark Homecoming

COLUMBIA, S.C., Nov. 16 (AP)—South Carolina will try for a return to its successful early season football form here tomorrow before a homecoming crowd against a victory-hungry Maryland team.

Injuries have hampered Maryland all season and may play a part here tomorrow in the relative strength of the squad that features some of the biggest players in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

The game pits former coaching teammates at Maryland, Tommy Mont, who succeeded Jim Tatum at Maryland, and Warren Giese, in his first year as head coach at South Carolina, were assistants at Tatum at Maryland last season.

Both teams play control ball, emphasizing defense. The minute one scores, it probably will go into a shell and try to hang on for the rest of the afternoon.

The game marks the final home appearance of two outstanding South Carolina players, quarterback Mackie Prickett and end Buddy Frick.

The last time South Carolina beat Maryland was in 1946. Tackle Mike Sandusky and others will head up a big Maryland line that will be protecting that record.

Maryland threw away several scoring chances against Clemson last week and had to be content with a 6-6 tie, while South Carolina was busy losing to N.C. State after repeatedly miffing scoring opportunities.

A downtown parade today opened the homecoming weekend. A homecoming queen will be crowned at halftime tomorrow.

Game time is 2 p. m. EST.

Navy Will Play Virginia Before Final With Army

BALTIMORE, Nov. 16 (AP)—Innocent Virginia is likely to run into a seething Navy football squad thirsting to let loose its week-old resentment in Memorial Stadium.

The Navy Academy atmosphere has been at a high temperature since last Saturday's 7-7 tie with Duke. There was a prevailing feeling Navy didn't get a fair shake in the officiating and that injuries to seven first stringers were entirely accidental or should at least have drawn penalties, which they didn't.

Right Halfback Paul Gober is the only one of the wounded who won't be able to play against Virginia.

Virginia also is the last shot for the Middies before taking off to the Middle for ready for the finale against Army in Philadelphia on Dec. 1. It isn't unlikely that Navy will be offered a post season bowl bid if it concludes with victories since its loss has been to Tulane.

Miles Resigns Directorship With Orioles

Served Two Years As Club President

BALTIMORE, Nov. 16 (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles announced today the resignation of Clarence W. Miles, former club president, as a member of the board of directors.

The announcement came after a stockholders meeting which resulted in the naming of all other board members to another term and in the re-election of James Keely as president.

Miles, who headed the organization for two years after playing a leading role in the transfer of the St. Louis Browns franchise to Baltimore, was not replaced on the board.

His letter of resignation said he was dropping out because of "professional commitments" which made out-of-town travel necessary and regular attendance at board meetings impossible. He is a lawyer.

Giants Put First Place Standing On Line In Washington

(By The Associated Press)
The fast stepping New York Giants put their first place standing in the Eastern Division of the National Football League on the line Sunday against the upset minded Washington Redskins in the circuit's top game.

The Redskins, with only a 3-3 record compared to the Giants 6-1, were the first to defeat the Chicago Cardinals, who dropped to second when they took a 23-10 lacing from the Giants last Sunday. And then the Skins upended the previously unbeaten Detroit Lions 18-17.

Detroit's defeat by Washington last Sunday dropped the Lions into a first place tie with the surging Chicago Bears in the Western Division. Each has a 6-1 record. On the basis of past performances the Bears have the easier assignment of the two Sunday. They meet the Los Angeles Rams, who have won only two of their seven games while the Lions take on the Baltimore Colts, who are 3-3.

The Cards, needing a Giants' defeat to get back into the picture, meet the Pittsburgh Steelers, who have been slowed down by injuries after getting off to a fast start.

In other games, Cleveland is at Philadelphia and San Francisco at Green Bay. None figure in championship consideration since there is only a total of 8 victories among them.

HAGERSTOWN, Nov. 16—Paced by Pat Henry, son of Coach Mel Henry, who scored three touchdowns on runs of 49, 47 and three yards, Hagerstown High School trounced Frederick High School's Cadets here tonight at Municipal Stadium before 3,000 persons by the score of 35-6 and took over the leadership of the Cumberland Valley Athletic League with a 4-1 record.

By winning tonight, the Hubs broke a first place tie with Fort Hill of Cumberland which plays its final league game of the season with Allegany High School on Thanksgiving Day.

The victory enabled the Henrymen to conclude their season with a record of seven wins and two losses. Frederick lowered the curtain on a winless season during which the Cadets lost eight and played one tie. Last year Frederick lost nine consecutive games.

Henry Leads League

Henry's three touchdowns upped his season total to 24 points which moved him into first place in the CVAL individual scoring race. Terry Strock kicked five extra points in as many tries to night and sent his total soaring to 21 points, tying Dave Conley of Allegany, for the runner-up spot. Henry had scored one touchdown in Hagerstown's four previous league games.

Other Hub touchdowns were credited to Roger Kiesel on a 52-yard run and Ted Dofflemeyer who went over from the four-yard mark.

Keyser Gets Title Shot At Mullens

Ravenswood Spills Ripley, 32-6; Final Game Thanksgiving

RAVENSWOOD, W. Va., Nov. 16—Ravenswood beat Ripley 32-6 here tonight, which means Mullens and Keyser will play on Thanksgiving for the Class A high school football championship of West Virginia.

Prior to tonight's game, Ripley, Mullens and Keyser ranked 1-2-3 in the State Secondary School Activities Commission's ratings. The top two teams meet for the division championship.

Mullens and Keyser had completed their regular schedules earlier, but Ripley needed to win tonight's finale with Ravenswood to remain a playoff contender.

The commission's executive secretary, W. R. Fugitt of Beckley, had announced that in the event of a Ripley defeat tonight, the playoff would be held on Thanksgiving between Mullens and Keyser. The site has not been announced.

A Ripley victory would have meant delaying the playoff until the Saturday after Thanksgiving. Performance of defeated opponents as well as a team's own record counts in its ratings.

All of Mullens' defeated opponents have completed their schedules, but that is not true in the case of Keyser victims. Should Ripley have remained the Class A leader by winning tonight, it would still have been possible for Keyser to bump Mullens from second place and land the other playoff berth.

TWO WEEKS from Monday the six-day deer season opens in Maryland and the gunners will be required to do plenty of sharp-shooting if they expect to set any new records in District No. 1, which includes the counties of Garrett, Allegany and Washington.

All previous records were smashed a year ago when Garrett County's kill mounted to an all-time high of 608. Allegany reported 491 bucks slain and Washington County checked in with 235. The total for the three counties was 1,334.

The previous marks were Garrett 592 in 1952, Allegany 281 in 1954 and Washington 145 in 1952. Game wardens report deer to be plentiful so it looks like another big gunning season ahead.

THE RABBIT season is now under way and it seems to be the most popular of all.

No other species of game undergoes the intense hunting pressure that faces the rabbit.

Each year countless thousands are killed by state hunters, but they bound back seemingly in abundance the next season to hold their top spot in hunting preference.

A three-year study by the Department of Research and Education revealed 42 per cent of the state's licensed hunters preferred gunning for rabbits. Gray squirrel were second and deer third. Duck hunting ranked fourth.

The daily bag limit for bunnies is four, with a possession limit of eight.

GRAFTON HIGH School's Class AA state championship team is coached by Rand McKinney, who will be remembered as a stand-out college basketball player back in the 1920s when Crafty Cam Henderson was turning out topnotch quints at Davis & Elkins College.

The D. & E. team that included McKinney, Christy and "Hippo" Poscover was rated one of the best in the country.

ALVA H., the longshot which paid $94.20 to win the first race and figured in the $1,452.20 daily double payoff at Pimlico yesterday was the winner of the 7th race on the second day of the 1953 meeting at the Cumberland Fair Grounds. He was a favorite that particular day and returned $5.60.

NEW DORP High School of Staten Island, N. Y., coached by Salvatore Somma, a native of Ridgeley, W. Va., has won seven consecutive games and is one of the top offensive teams in the metropolitan area with 257 points. The opposition has been limited to 38 markers.

The New York Daily Mirror says New Dorp is a polished single-wing outfit with all the trappings—pitchers, spinners, reverses, tackle slants and a triple threat tailback who throws needle passes.

A move to bring New Dorp and Brooklyn Tech (6-0) together for a city champion ship clash has been vetoed by high school officials.

New Dorp closes its season with Curtis High School on Thanksgiving Day.

HAVE YOU EVER tried to guess in advance the number of paid admissions for a Thanksgiving Day football game between Allegany and Fort Hill?

Last year in spite of the 7-0 Allegany record and Fort Hill's 9-1 mark the attendance of 7,257 fell below expectations. Gate receipts were $7,638.25.

The turnout, however, was better than 1954 when 5,889 passed through the turnstiles. Going into that year's game Allegany was 4-3-1 and Fort Hill 5-2.

The all-time high was 9,792 paid in 1948 when the Campers and Sentinels were unbeaten and untied before the Turkey Day classic which ended in a 6-6 draw.

More persons paid to see the 1946, 1947, 1948, 1949, 1950, 1952 and 1953 games than were present a year ago.

Allegany, winless in the series since 1945, and with a 3-4-1 record appears to be the underdog. Camper followers, however, point with pride to their team's 14-7 win over Hagerstown which later whipped Fort Hill 20-0, but Fort Hillians can show you that the Sentinels whipped LaSalle, 33-7, and the Explorers trimmed Allegany 21-0. And Fort Hill downed Martinsburg, 9-0, which held AHS to 0-0 deadlock. And Fort Hill defeated Handley, 14-6 after the Judges turned back Alco 14-7.

One big thing that worries Allegany followers has been the team's lack of scoring punch. Fifty-nine points in eight games is the lowest figure for an Alco team since the 67 of 1940.

THE HISTORY of American Football, the new 525-page book, which Prentice-Hall published this week, is considered the most complete and accurate story of the game ever published.

Allison Danzig, well-known as a sports writer for The New York Times, is author of the volume which contains more than 300,000 words with 356 photographs.

Danzig writes of the days when Glenn "Pop" Warner's Carlisle Indians ran rampant.

With only 250 boys of playing age in the entire school, Warner developed teams which took the measure of almost every big university.

Columbia, Yale, Pennsylvania, Minnesota, Harvard, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Syracuse, Army and Brown among them. In 1912, the fabulous Jim Thorpe scored 23 touchdowns and 198 points to lead the Indians to 12 victories against one loss.

As far back as 1609, Danzig points out, colonists were kicking a blown-up bladder around, but it was not until 1869 that Rutgers met Princeton in the first intercollegiate game.

The forward pass came into the game in 1906, when Coach Ed Cochemus used it effectively in St. Louis. But it remained for a relatively unknown team of South Bend, Indiana to popularize the passing game.

In 1913 Gus Dorais, Knute Rockne and a cocky Notre Dame team cut down mighty Army, 35-13, as Dorais completed 13 of 17 passes for 243 yards. The pass was here to stay.

ATHLETES LIVE just as long and die of the same causes as do non-athletes, a Michigan State survey has shown.

The effects of intensive athletic competition on the heart and other organs and on bodily resistance to diseases have long been the subject of controversy and it was believed that athletic competition shortened life expectancy.

Questionnaires were sent to 1,130 athletic letter winners and 1,130 non-athletes who were individually matched as to years of attendance at the university.

Of the questionnaires sent to athletes, 629 or 55.66 per cent were returned, while 583 or 51.59 per cent of those sent to non-athletes were returned.

The questionnaires showed that the average life expectancy of athletes was 65.96 years, while the average life expectancy of non-athletes was 65.97. Sixty-seven athletes had died, at an average age of 73.86 years, compared to 56 non-athletes at an average age of 74.24.

Beagle Club Fun Trial For Juniors Scheduled Sunday

A fun field trial for junior members will be held by the Allegany Beagle Club Sunday on the Barton Dairy Farm, McMullen highway.

Drawings in both the 13 and 15 inch classes will be held at 1 p. m.

Fun trials were inaugurated by the club in 1953.

Tomorrow's events will be judged by members of the club.

Tennessee, Mississippi Play Today

Yale And Princeton, Syracuse-Colgate Among Top Battles

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The moans of college football coaches seem to indicate that most of today's big games will be played by teams so crippled it will be hard for them to field eleven sound players. But you don't hear any such sounds from Tennessee and Oklahoma, the teams fighting it out for the top ranking.

The sound condition of those squads portends no good for Mississippi and Missouri, the teams they face today. Tennessee wound up just two points ahead of Oklahoma; the former leader, in this week's balloting in the Associated Press ranking poll.

On the other side of the injury picture there's third-ranked Michigan State, which faces Minnesota with three of its top-line players sidelined for the season and three more who may not play today. This is one of two "must" games in the struggle for the Big Ten championship and Rose Bowl bid—which aren't necessarily the same.

The other brings together Ohio State and Iowa, currently rated sixth and seventh nationally.

Ohio Leads Big Ten

The Big Ten standings show Ohio in front with four victories and no losses. Michigan State and Iowa, each 4-1, are tied for second with Minnesota (3-1-1) right behind. Defending champion Ohio State is ineligible for the Rose Bowl because of probation and Michigan State because it went there last January. Iowa and Minnesota are eligible, which may add a little to their desire.

Fourth-rated Georgia Tech, also very much in the bowl picture, meets Alabama, a two-game winner which shouldn't make much trouble. Texas A. & M. apparently heading for the Southwest Conference title but ineligible for the Cotton Bowl, takes on Texas, next-to-last in its league. Texas Christian and Southern Methodist, leading bowl candidates in the Southwest, play Texas and Arkansas, respectively.

The other top teams playing today, Syracuse (9) and Michigan (10) could run into trouble against Colgate and Indiana.

Yale Plays Tigers

The Ivy League title probably is at stake when Yale meets Princeton. Texas Western and West Texas State have a similar scrap for the Border Conference lead.

On the Pacific Coast, Rose Bowl eligible Oregon State figures to edge ahead of non-eligible UCLA at Idaho's expense. UCLA has an intercollegiate tilt with Kansas.

Elsewhere the big games look like these:

East—Virginia-Navy, North Carolina State-Penn State, and William and Mary-Rutgers among the independents.

South—Auburn-Georgia, Mississippi State-Louisiana State, Tulane-Vanderbilt, Duke-Wake Forest, Maryland-South Carolina, Xavier-Kentucky, Furman-West Virginia, George Washington-The Citadel, Mississippi Southern-Florida State.

Miami Smears Clemson, 21-0

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 16—Miami's Hurricanes, smarting under the NCAA decision to bar them from a bowl game for the third straight year, gained sweet satisfaction tonight by smearing the Clemson Tigers, one of the probable Orange Bowl teams, 21-0.

Quarterback Sam Scarnechia scooted for two touchdowns on slick keeper plays and fullback Don Bosseler rammed for the other as the Hurricanes, growling mad, rubbed all the luster off the coming Orange Bowl game which is expected to match Clemson against Colorado.

The NCAA, although admitting that Miami now is simon pure, refused last Tuesday to lift the probation first imposed in October, 1954, for violation of recruiting rules.

That eliminated the Hurricanes as prime candidates for the Sugar Bowl game and their punishment, originally scheduled for two years, actually will extend two months beyond that and through three bowl games. Presumably, the ban will be lifted at the next NCAA meeting Jan. 10.

Clemson 0 0 0 0-0
Miami 7 0 7 7-21

Miami scoring — Touchdowns: Scarnechia, 2 (8-run, 4-run); Bosseler (1-plunge). Conversions: Oliver 3.

West Virginia Is Optimistic About Hunting

Grouse And Turkey Kills On Increase

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 16—The Conservation Department came up today with some optimistic observations about the hunting season, particularly with respect to grouse, squirrel and wild turkey.

Here is the outlook at the moment for the benefit of weekend and other hunters:

Grouse—Hunting better than in the past five years with the best areas centered about headwaters of Greenbrier, Williams and Cranberry rivers, Pocahontas, Pendleton and Randolph counties have reported the best results to date in a season continuing until Jan. 5. Some hunters report getting their bag limits of four per day in minimum time.

Rabbit—Good prospects at present, with farmlands and fields offering the best opportunities in another season which ends Jan. 5.

Squirrel—More abundant than predicted, but in somewhat spotty supply with seasoned hunters finding the game in "pockets" in hardwood forests. Squirrels are absent in the highlands, even where acorn supplies escaped last year's frosts. For squirrels the season continues until Jan. 5.

Wild turkeys—Technicians who predicted kills would be down this year now are convinced that the season, through Jan. 5, 1957, will be better than last year when more than 1,500 birds were taken. Only 15 counties are open to turkey with sportsmen advised to stick to national forest areas.

Deer—Bow and arrow hunting only is permitted at this time in the season, which runs through Dec. 1, but archers are averaging about two deer per day in the state. Hardy County appears to be the best area, with archers also successful in State parks and national forest areas.

Little Praises Football Setup In Ivy League

Says Other Colleges Should Take Lesson

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 16—Coach Lou Little of Columbia University said today American college football should take a lesson from the Ivy League in preventing professionalism.

Little, who soon will end his long coaching tenure at Columbia, appeared on a sports panel at the third session of the four day 23rd annual Associated Press Managing Editors Assn. conference.

The rules of the Ivy League, Little said, provide "the only way football should be conducted."

"As long as the Ivy rules are followed," he said, "football will be carried on in a proper manner."

No Favoritism Shown

Little, whose team plays Ivy opponent Penn here tomorrow, said that among Ivy league schools absolutely no favoritism is shown the football player.

"All financial help," he said, "is based strictly on need. The football player, just like any other student, should be prepared for a productive livelihood after graduation."

Little said "all Chamber of Commerce, booster clubs and other forms of financial assistance" should be abolished in college football circles.

The policing would have to be, as it is in the Ivy league, up to the president and dean of each school along with conference officials.

Rough On Violators

"If an Ivy coach violates the rule," Little said, "he should expect to have his head chopped off."

Little doesn't agree entirely with the Ivy approach. "Sometimes," he added, "the stress is just a mile to the extreme."

"The athlete," he said, "should be given every opportunity to participate in undergraduate activities, but at the same time, all activities should be subordinated to the scholastic."

CCC Golfers To Vie In Turkey Tourney

The Men's Golf Association of the Cumberland Country Club will hold a turkey tournament today and Sunday.

The event will be an 18-hole straight handicap affair and a turkey will go to the player with low net score.

Notre Dame Army Meet Next Year

Philadelphia Set For Contest Oct. 12

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 16—(INS)—A renewal of the Army-Notre Dame football classic after a 10-year lapse highlights the 1957 Notre Dame schedule released today by Athletic Director Ed (Moos) Krause.

Army replaces North Carolina on the 10-game Irish slate. The other nine opponents were all on this year's schedule.

The Army-Notre Dame game, which was last played at South Bend in 1947, will be played next year in Philadelphia on Oct. 12.

The Irish will play five games at home and five on the road. The complete schedule:

Sept. 28—Purdue at Lafayette, Ind.
Oct. 5—Indiana at Notre Dame.
Oct. 12—Army at Philadelphia.
Oct. 26—Pittsburgh at Notre Dame.
Nov. 2—Navy at Notre Dame.
Nov. 9—Michigan State at East Lansing, Mich.
Nov. 16—Oklahoma at Norman, Okla.
Nov. 23—Iowa at Notre Dame.
Nov. 30—Southern California at Notre Dame.
Dec. 7—Southern Methodist at Dallas.

Olympic Games Will Run Into Transit Strike

Delays Expected On Eve Of Event

MELBOURNE, Nov. 16—A "regulation" strike on Melbourne's trains, trams and buses Monday and Tuesday threatens to throw this Olympic city's public transport into chaos.

Employees will follow every regulation to the letter—such rules as not starting the tram if a passenger is on the step, strictly following running regulations for trains between stations, punching all tickets, etc.

The result will be that time-tables will be disrupted and thousands of people will be delayed on the eve of the Olympic games. The regulation strike will be the first of a series threatened to protest the decision of the Victorian government to abolish cost of living adjustments.

But Melbourne has not forgotten the Olympic games and regulation strikes will be suspended on the opening day on Thursday.

HE RE-GREW HAIR

Before Erickson Treatment

A Few Months Later

Thomas A. Melton Jr. of Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania, (above) shows he re-grew hair by the Erickson Home Treatment method.

Hair Specialists Here Tomorrow; Will Show How To Save Hair and Prevent Baldness

Chicago, Nov. 16—New home treatment methods for saving hair and improving its growth will be demonstrated in Cumberland, Maryland on November 18, Sunday only.

Trichologist F. I. Brodie will be in charge, representing the dynamic Erickson Hair & Scalp Specialists organization. He will personally examine hair-worried men and women from 1:00 to 8:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Fort Cumberland Hotel.

At the home office of the Erickson organization, a new, even more successful method of treatment was announced — a treatment that you can easily administer yourself at home.

This new treatment is neither "mail order" nor "cure-all." It is adapted to the individual after a personal examination and progress is checked personally at regular intervals by an Erickson expert.

Who Can Be Helped?

For many years now Erickson Hair & Scalp Specialists have been checking the hair of thousands of people across the country. They have encountered and dealt with hundreds of cases of every kind of hair trouble. From this experience has grown the body of scientific knowledge leading to the development of the new Erickson home treatment.

Will the new Erickson treatment cure baldness? "No!" For we cannot help men and women who are slick-bald after years of gradual hair-loss. But if you still have fuzz and your scalp is still creating hair, you can at least save and thicken what you have. Some conditions, such as Alopecia Areat or "spot baldness" usually have complete coverage if caught in time!

Other conditions that usually bring on excessive hair loss — dandruff, itching, over-oiliness or dryness, follicle clogged with sebum or seborrhea—can be corrected by the Erickson home treatment if caught before the "hair factories" are destroyed.

Evidence of the success of the Erickson method is that the organization has quickly expanded to serve hundreds of cities in 32 states.

The most important thing is: Don't wait until it's too late. Surveys among men and women in all walks of life show that the worst enemies of your hair are (1) skepticism and (2) procrastination. The average holding person justifies his condition with one or the other of these two statements:

"I don't think anybody can

Jury Convicts Motorist Of Manslaughter

10 Witnesses
Heard In Court

Francis H. Donahoe, 18, of Beans Cove Road, yesterday afternoon was convicted of manslaughter by motor vehicle in the traffic death of five-year-old Randall Langer Martin, by an Allegany County Circuit Court jury which deliberated only about 25 minutes.

The Martin child, son of Robert J. and Martha Lee (Langer) Martin, was killed about 8 p. m. July 22 while riding his tricycle near his Pleasant Valley Road home. Donahoe lives about four miles north of the Martin residence in the Pennsylvania portion of the country road which also is known as the Beans Cove Road. The road is 15 feet wide with macadam surface.

Associate Judge Morgan C. Harris, who presided at the all-day trial, deferred passing sentence. Donahoe was confined in the County Jail awaiting sentence. The young Pennsylvanian, who had been driving only about four months at the time of the tragic accident, has had no previous convictions, Judge Harris observed.

10 Testify

State's Attorney Paul M. Fletcher called 10 witnesses to the stand in presenting the prosecution's case, which he started about 2:30 p. m. He and Edward J. Ryan, who with William L. Wilson represented Donahoe, divided about an hour in the closing arguments to the jury.

The defendant was not called to testify nor did the defense attorneys present any other evidence. In his instructions Judge Harris reminded the jury that Donahoe had the option but not the obligation of testifying.

Mr. Ryan argued that there is a considerable difference between simple negligence and gross negligence which is required for conviction of manslaughter by motor vehicle. Courts in Maryland have cited the difference ever since 1662. Gross negligence is the wanton or reckless disregard for human life.

On the other hand, Mr. Fletcher contended that the physical evidence in the case showed that Donahoe was guilty of gross negligence.

He cited the police testimony that Donahoe's car laid down double 185-foot skidmarks before the point where the child was struck.

He called attention to the fact that the second of the two cars which Donahoe's vehicle struck was forced between 60 and 90 feet from the point of impact.

He also noted that Donahoe in his statement estimated he was driving 45 miles per hour.

Examiner Testifies

First of the 10 witnesses heard yesterday was Dr. H. V. Deming, deputy county medical examiner, who described his examination of the boy's body. He said both arms and legs had multiple fractures, the child had a ruptured spleen, hemorrhages of the chest cavity and abdomen.

Other witnesses were Richard Lee Bible, 24, of Baltimore Pike, his cousin, Merle Bible, 29, RFD 1, Flintstone, both of whose cars were struck by the Donahoe vehicle; Mrs. Faith Manges Bible, Richard's wife; Lester Raines, Baltimore Pike, who also was driving along the Pleasant Valley Road; W. Clayton Odgers, who lives near the Martin home; T. J. F. Browning, Mr. Martin, the father of the boy killed in the crash; County Investigator Edwin R. Lilya and Samuel Morgan, who saw Donahoe drive past the Pleasant Valley Church shortly before the accident.

Herman J. Miller, city fireman, was foreman of the jury of nine men and three women. Other jurors were Claude E. Hardy, Lois V. Fisher, John D. Hensell, Ethel Thayer, George R. Aldridge, David Crump, John R. Merrbaugh, Harry E. Flook, Alphonus Byrnes, Barbara E. Fletcher and Benjamin A. LaNeve.

PTA To Sell Yule Trees

The Parent-Teacher Association of Columbia Street School is planning to sell Christmas trees this year at the playlot. Men of the PTA will be in charge.

Proceeds, according to Joseph Koelker, president, will go to the PTA, and members are asked to buy their trees from the group.

During a meeting of the PTA on Thursday, Mrs. George Pfeiffer announced the next meeting of the parent discussion group will be on Monday, November 26, at 2 p. m.

On December 3, the Allegany County PTA Council will meet at Carver High School, during the Thursday meet Mrs. Florence Yankelevitz chairman of Budget and finance, presented the budget and the members accepted it.

Guest speaker for the evening was Dr. Orville Swartley who spoke on education. Miss Bonnie Kalbaugh and Miss Vickie Shober entertained with dance selections.

Girl Scouts Landscape LaVale Library

Members of Girl Scout Troop 5, sponsored by LaVale Methodist Church are seen here at the new LaVale Library building, busily engaged in planting tulip bulbs as part of their project of beautifying the grounds around what was once a State Police substation. Leaders of the troop, Mrs. James Price, LaVale,

Yule Program Planned By Salvation Army

Advisory Board
To Meet Monday

The Salvation Army is completing plans for its Christmas Cheer program in the Cumberland area, according to Capt. Daniel Biggs, commander of the Salvation Army Citadel.

The plans will be submitted for approval of the Salvation Army Advisory Board at its meeting Monday at noon at the Fort Cumberland Hotel.

The board will also appoint a Christmas committee to direct the annual Yule Program.

The Christmas Campaign Capt. Biggs said, will officially open December 1, when the familiar Salvation Army kettle-house will be set up on Baltimore Street.

Service clubs of the area are expected to hold their traditional kettle collection this year, and their campaign is tentatively scheduled for Saturday, December 22.

The date, however, is subject to approval of the organizations which raise a major part of the funds which are used to provide extra cheer for the needy during the Christmas season.

Registration for Christmas baskets, Capt. Biggs said, will be held at the Salvation Army Citadel December 3 through 14.

He said applications must be on hand by December 14 so food orders can be mailed by December 20.

Plans for a special Thanksgiving service at the Citadel Sunday also were announced.

The service will be held during Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. and will be in charge of Mrs. Winona Stimler.

Flintstone FFA Plans Projects

Two new projects have been adopted by the Flintstone Chapter of Future Farmers of America.

The group decided Wednesday night to plan landscaping around the vocational agriculture building at Flintstone High School. A committee headed by Terry Robinette was appointed to plan the planting of grass and shrubbery around the building.

Members of the Flintstone FFA also voted to collect old toys which they will repair and distribute to needy children at Christmas time.

A group of new members, known as "Green Hands," were received as members, Randall Mann presided.

Crafts Will Meet

The Building and Construction Trades Council will meet Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the Allegany Labor Temple.

McKeldin Requests Cities To Channel Expansions

ANNAPOLIS, Nov. 16 (AP)—Gov. McKeldin told more than 160 Maryland municipal officials today that it is the duty of government "not to unduly regulate business and industry, but, on the contrary, to build the channels for its orderly expansion and growth."

"A great era of industrial expansion is upon us," he said, "and it is up to us to make it a well-ordered era of progress in the state and its political subdivisions. This we can do with good planning—wise planning with a liberal dash of the daring."

The governor made his remarks in a welcoming address to delegates representing 44 municipalities at the annual convention of the Maryland Municipal League.

McKeldin said "this is a time of rapid change, but it is no time for alarm. It is, rather, a time of challenge."

SRC Will Ask Adoption Of 22-Point Plan

Legislative Council
Receives Briefing

The Maryland State Roads Commission will ask the General Assembly to approve a 22-point legislative program.

The Legislative Council was briefed on the program Thursday by Joseph D. Buscher, special assistant attorney general, as the screening unit met in Baltimore.

Del. George R. Hughes Jr., minority leader of the House of Delegates, said the subject matter of the bills ranged from land condemnation to requirements for mudguards on trucks.

No action was taken by the Legislative Council, but Del. Hughes told SRC officials he would be glad to sponsor or co-sponsor the legislative plan with the majority leader of the House.

Has Many Troubles

The legislators also received a briefing from Robert O. Bonnell, SRC chairman, on the progress of Maryland's 12-year road program and the impact of the federal road construction program.

The road program, Mr. Bonnell said, is running into financial difficulties.

Costs of construction and rights of way, he said, have gone up 27 per cent since the program was authorized.

The SRC, he said, has been taking funds from construction and using them to maintain present roads.

But he said this is only "putting off the day of reckoning," since gasoline tax revenues have not been increasing as fast as road mileage.

Del. Hughes reported Mr. Bonnell said he would ask the Legislature to authorize the SRC to spend up to $4,000,000, if necessary, to keep the roads in condition. This is $1,000,000 more than was authorized this fiscal year.

The SRC chairman also briefed the legislators on the federal road program.

Will Be 80-20

Under the current Gore formula, based on population, road mileage and area, Mr. Bonnell reported, Maryland would get about $250,000,000 for interstate roads.

He said the Fallon formula, if adopted by Congress, would give the state about $465,000,000 over a 13-year period. The formula is based on needs.

Mr. Bonnell pointed out that the interstate road plan provides for 90 per cent of costs to be paid by the government.

But extras which are required to meet the interstate standards, he said, will mean a federal-state ratio of about 80-20.

Lunar Eclipse To Be Visible Here Tonight

You might be on the lookout for the eclipse of the moon tonight, provided the weatherman sees to it that clear skies prevail.

For one thing, it is going to be cold this evening and during the afternoon today the forecast is fair and colder.

Early this morning the temperatures were expected to dip to below freezing. The unofficial temperature at 9:45 p. m. yesterday was a chilly 42 degrees above zero.

The total eclipse of the moon begins at 11 p. m., and if you have nothing to do for five and a half hours—well, it takes just that long for the eclipse to take place.

Charles C. Clark was the complainant in the case, Diebold, Inc., was the employer and Indemnity Insurance Company of North America the insurer.

Clark, who was working at the Second National Bank during the remodeling project last year, injured his left foot April 11, 1955, when a piece of timber slipped and fell on his foot. A second injury was sustained by Clark June 24, 1955.

Commissioner R. Duncan Clark ruled that Clark's injury of June 24 like the one of April 11 was sustained in the course of his employment. He decided that Clark still was temporarily totally disabled and was entitled to compensation.

William C. Walsh and Thomas B. Finan, attorneys for the employer and insurer, have appealed. Harry I. Stegmair is Clark's attorney.

Ratification Meeting Set By Local 26

Will Act On SUB,
Vacation Pact

Local 26, Rubber Workers Union, has called a special meeting today at 7:30 p. m. in the union hall for ratification of agreements reached with the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company on a supplemental unemployment benefit plan and an improved vacation schedule.

The meeting was announced yesterday by James Stein, president of the local.

The supplemental unemployment benefit agreement, reached in negotiations held during recent weeks, provides for boosting a furloughed employee's state unemployment benefits up to 65 per cent of his take-home pay.

The plan is to be financed through a trust fund to which the company will contribute three cents an hour for each employee.

Provisions of the plan will not become effective until June 22, 1957.

Stein said the plan negotiated at the local tire plant is patterned after the one worked out between the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company and the Rubber Workers Union earlier this year.

Negotiators for the union included A. L. Johnson, Leo Barkman, Raymond Adams, C. E. O'Baker and Stein.

Kelly negotiators were F. T. Bell, personnel manager; Harry Nelson, employment manager, and Lynn Bray, of the Personnel Department.

The union also announced the completion of negotiations of an improved vacation scheduling system.

Negotiations on the vacation issue, which is also subject to ratification tonight, were held by mutual agreement of the company and the union.

The effect of the plan, Stein said, is to provide more vacations during the summer months than in previous years.

County Okays $135,387.80 In New Building

October proved another good month for the start of new construction in Allegany County as 30 projects for work estimated to cost a total of $135,387.80 were approved in building permits issued by the county assessing department.

It was the fourth successive month that the total estimated value of construction was higher than the corresponding month of 1955. Last October there were 23 permits for $104,540 in construction.

The biggest single project started in October was the new $40,000 branch bank at Cresap-town of the Second National Bank.

Sixteen of the permits were for new dwellings and five each for additions to dwellings and new garages. Other permits listed once each in October were a stable, porch awning, enclosure of corner of Louse, patio, kitchen, chicken house, garage and storage and porch.

Election District No. 7 in the Cresaptown-Rawlings area will be the October leader with six building permits. Right behind with five each were District 29 at LaVale and District 5 in the North End suburban area. Other districts with more than one October permit were District 31, District 31, McCool, three each; District 16, North Branch and District 21, Baltimore Pike, two each.

Other districts with a single permit last month were District 23, East Side suburban area; District 13, Mt. Savage; District 30, Zihlman; District 24, Eckhart, and District 6, Bowling Green.

Remains "Poor"

Attaches at Memorial Hospital last night said Russell Heaver, 40, of Cresapton, remains in "poor" condition. Heaver was found unconscious at his home Wednesday and has been semi-conscious since being admitted.

The newly reorganized club will meet on the second Wednesday of each month. The program for December 12 will be a black and white print and color slide clinic.

The board of Directors consists of John W. Jack Vi Jack, Louis Mitholland, Thomas F. Conlon Jr., Oliver M. Rizer, Leo E. Leaseure, Milton Mantell, George W. Triplett, Keith Sisk, George Carney and Mrs. E. R. Kelly.

Milton Mantell and Robert Snowden were appointed to secure a permanent meeting place for the club.

Two Injured In Auto Crash

Two persons were taken to Miners Hospital in Frostburg last night with injuries sustained in a highway accident at the east end of that community on U. S. Route 40.

Full details of the accident was not learned last night.

Admitted to the hospital with a head injury was Miss Margaret Kemp, 21, of 201 Welsh Hill, Frostburg, and the other injured person, James Donahue, 24, of 148 Washington Street, Frostburg was expected to be admitted.

Is In Hospital

Dr. Winter R. Frantz, Allegany County health officer, was admitted for observation to Memorial Hospital yesterday.

College Plan Is Backed By Legislators

Suggest Branch Of U. Of Md. Here

Allegany County legislators last night offered unqualified support for a plan to establish a fully accredited four-year college in Western Maryland.

Senator Charles M. See and members of the Allegany County Delegation suggested to officials of the Western Maryland section of the American Chemical Society that the college be established as a branch of the University of Maryland.

Such a plan, Delegates Estel C. Kelley said, offers the quickest way to meet the educational needs of the industrial center.

Senator See urged the ACS officials to discuss the proposal with Dr. Wilson H. Elkins, president of the University of Maryland, as soon as possible.

Sees 1,000 Enrollment

The plan was presented to the legislators by Albert M. Jacobs, chairman of the education and manpower committee of the section; Dr. Charles A. Orlick, chairman of the ACS section, and Howard W. Irwin, chairman elect.

The objective, Mr. Jacobs said, is to establish a fully accredited college which would give degrees in the arts and sciences.

Studies, he said, show that such a college would have a potential enrollment of about 600 students at present, and that the student body would grow to 1,000 in 15 years.

Cites Four Routes

Mr. Jacobs said there are four possible ways to found a college here.

The first, he said, would be to expand Frostburg State Teachers College, but this might be at variance with the present policy of the State Board of Education to keep teacher and general colleges separate.

The second plan would be to establish a new college here as part of the University of Maryland.

Other plans include a state-supported institution with its own administration, or a new privately endowed institution.

Mr. Jacobs said Edmund S. Burke, president of the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company and a regent of the University of Maryland, is keenly interested in the plan for a college here.

Backs Branch Plan

Expansion of the University of Maryland here, Sen. See said, is the "logical approach" to the problem.

In response to queries about the possibilities of establishing a junior college as a start, Mr. Jacobs said the ACS is not against a two-year college which would be a step in the right direction, but wants a full-fledged four-year college adequate to meet the needs of Western Maryland.

Both U. S. Senator J. Glenn Beall and Rep. DeWitt S. Hyde, Jacobs said, have been advised of the plan and are interested.

Federal aid for building the educational institution, Del. Driscoll said, may be possible. He added that planks of both parties in the recent campaign stressed aid for education.

Camera Club Names Board

The Cumberland Camera Club met Wednesday night at Central YMCA and nominated 12 members to serve as board of directors.

Permanent officers for the club will be elected from the board of directors at the next meeting. The club also adopted a set of by-laws.

The newly reorganized club will meet on the second Wednesday of each month. The program for December 12 will be a black and white print and color slide clinic.

The board of Directors consists of John W. Jack Vi Jack, Louis Mitholland, Thomas F. Conlon Jr., Oliver M. Rizer, Leo E. Leaseure, Milton Mantell, George W. Triplett, Keith Sisk, George Carney and Mrs. E. R. Kelly.
